Come join us for the first math club meeting of the year!

Meet other students interested in mathematics to share ideas and to have fun. Find out about the MAA student chapter and how to join. Learn about teaching jobs, tutoring opportunities, undergraduate research, networking, and hearing from people in business and industry that use mathematics in their work.

Bring and share your ideas on what activities you would like to see during the fall quarter. We have some events planned already, but there is room for your ideas.
