1. 1.1 The Chair's Announcements:

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1.1.1 Dr. Nancy Hunt, Division of Special Education and Counseling, has agreed to serve on the Committee on Academic Freedom and Professional Ethics as a replacement for Sabrina Mims, term ending 2011.

1.1.2 The Office of the President and members of the Chicano/Latino University Association invite you to the rededication of Ruben Salazar Hall and the unveiling of the Ruben Salazar portrait this Thursday, October 12th, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The ceremony will include a keynote address by distinguished journalism scholar Dr. Felix Gutierrez, and a reading of Mr. Salazar's last column for the Los Angeles Times. The ceremony will be held in the Applied Gerontology Institute conference room.

1.1.3 I would like to remind you that the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library and the Emeriti Association will co-sponsor a reception to open the commemorative exhibition of Native American art bequeathed to the University by the late emerita librarian Mary Gormly today following the Senate meeting in Library North B 530.

1.2 Senator Dewey announced: I would like to tell you the Senate connection to this exhibit – Mary Gormly was for many, many, years the ACSUP delegate to the Senate as a non-voting member. The program today will include remarks by Cesar Caballero who has been for the past two years a member of this Senate and Alice Kawakami, the University Librarian who is of course a member of the Senate, will be welcoming the group. The member of the Emeriti Association who put things together for this event is former Senate Chair Frieda Stahl who is executor of Mary Gormly's estate. As announced in the Emeritimes, the list of who would be present included "and members of the Academic Senate," so she will be watching.

1.3 Senator Zepeda announced: Also, tomorrow, between 3:00 and 5:00 p.m. – and I mentioned this last time – there will be a rededication of the George Yepes Mural. It is over in Phase II of Student Housing.

1.4 Senator McQueen announced: I just wanted to let everybody know that the Sally Ride Science Festival is this Saturday.

2. None.
