

CSGS Advisory Board

Composed of faculty, staff, students, and community partner organizations, the CSGS Advisory Board works with the Director of the Center to maintain the quality of its programming and to develop new projects that enhance the Center's focus on the study of genders and sexualities in diverse communities. For a list of current Advisory Board members, see the CSGS Webpage, www.calstatela.edu/centers/csgs

Dionne Espinoza, Ph.D.

Director

Rafael Lainez

Center Office Coordinator

Location:

Integrated Humanities Center

King Hall D4051

Mailing Address:

Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities

College of Arts and Letters

California State University, Los Angeles

5151 State University Drive

Music Building 228

Los Angeles, CA 90032-8100

Phone: 323-343-6549

E-mail: csgs@calstatela.edu

www.calstatela.edu/centers/csgs

Keep informed of our events and opportunities. Contact us to be put on the e-mail list or the mailing list or to donate to CSGS.

Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities
College of Arts and Letters
California State University, Los Angeles
5151 State University Drive, Music Building 228
Los Angeles, CA 90032-8100

Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities

College of Arts and Letters

The Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities is located in the Integrated Humanities Center and housed in the College of Arts and Letters at the California State University, Los Angeles.

Mission

The mission of the Center for the Study of Genders and Sexualities (CSGS) is to provide support for scholars, teachers, students, and community partners who investigate gender and sexuality, in particular, work that bridges the diverse communities represented at Cal State L.A. and its surrounding area.

CSGS Student Conference Panel and Faculty Moderator

CSGS Goals Support Research

Building Student Leadership and Academic Development

- Receive support for your research through the Student Research Stipend Competition
- Apply for a Quarterly Internship at CSGS
- Participate in Service-Learning opportunities
- Become a member of the Student Development Committee
- Learn about resources for the study of genders and sexualities

Fostering Faculty Research and Professional Development

- Apply for the Faculty Release Time Competition to write a grant
- Receive funding to hire Student Research Assistants
- Attend the Quarterly Faculty Research Colloquium or present your own work
- Join the Faculty Research Committee
- Network with faculty in the field and develop collegial ties

Developing Collaborative Relationships and Projects with Community Partners

- Meet past and present community partners including: The East Los Angeles Women's Center, AIDS Project Los Angeles, and FTM Alliance
- Participate in collaborative grant writing with community agencies
- Join the Community Engagement Committee to help build relationships between the community and the academy

Center Programs for the Campus and the Community

Fall, Winter, and Spring Quarterly Lecture, Performance Series

The campus and community are invited to a series that features cutting edge speakers. Among our past presenters: Linda Martin Alcoff, Ruthie Gilmore, Cherrie Moraga, and Trinh T. Min-ha.

Annual Student Research Conference, "Gender, Sexuality, and Power"

Each May, students present their research at this student-centered conference.

Research Scholars Program

CSGS offers the opportunity to participate in the community of scholars, instructors, and students at CSULA to scholars engaged in research related to genders or sexualities.

Curriculum Support

CSGS houses a syllabus file and faculty across the university are involved in dialogues to continue building the curriculum in women, genders, and sexualities.

Additional Campus Programs

Students interested in the study of genders and sexualities may wish to consult the Minor in Women's and Gender Studies, the General Education Upper Division Program (Gender Theme C), and the Women's Resource Center of the Cross Cultural Centers.