Exhibition Guidelines

2005 Theme: Define Yourself

Deadline to submit Entry Form – March 18, 2005

Notices to selected artists – April 6

ELIGIBILITY: This exhibition is open to all artists, over 18 years of age, who can creatively display their U.S. Latina/o experience. All media except video and film are acceptable.

ENTRIES: Maximum size of artwork: 3'X3' for 2D, 3'X3'X3' for 3D work. Artists must submit slides and/or photographs of their work. Photographs must be at least 4X6 inches. Slides or photos submitted for exhibition must be labeled properly with artist's name, title, media, and size of work. Slides or photos of accepted artwork will be retained as exhibition documentation and will not be returned.

Completed and signed entry forms, accompanied with slides or photos, should be mailed or delivered to:

California State University, Los Angeles
Department of Communication Studies –Music 104
Reel Rasquache
5151 State University Drive
Los Angeles, CA. 90032-8102

DELIVERY: Detailed instructions regarding delivery will be e-mailed to Artists whose work has been selected. Reel Rasquache will not incur any cost associated with the shipping, delivery or return of submitted art.

INSTALLATION: All selected art must be ready to be displayed. For works to be hung, wires are the preferred method. Wiring must be in good condition and substantial enough for the weight of the art work. Special installations require approval of the selection committee.

LIABILITY & CONDITIONS: Artwork will be insured based on the value of the artist's entry form. Your signed entry form releases and discharges Cal State L.A. representatives, employees, and Festival Staff from any and all claims occasioned by loss or damage of said works while in Cal State L.A.'s possession.

PLEASE NOTE: Art work MAY NOT BE REMOVED before closing date of the exhibition. Works which do not match the slide in content or quality or do not adhere to the conditions of entry as listed above may be declined when received. The Rasquache Art selection committee retains the right of final determination.
