

OLLI/ARCADIA COMMUNITY CENTER OFFER

“IMMIGRANT EXPERIENCE” CLASSES

As part of its Spring/Summer course offerings designed for individuals age 50 and older, California State University’s Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) presents “THE IMMIGRANT EXPERIENCE: A JOURNEY TO BECOMING AMERICAN” series at Arcadia Community Center every Tuesday, May through July, 2008 from 10 a.m. – noon. The following courses will be offered:

“The Kaleidoscopic Camera: Viewing the Diversity of the Immigrant Experience Through Film” (May 6, 13, 20, 27)

“Our Food: Immigrant, Ethnic and American” (June 3, 10, 17, 24)

“American Dreams, American Realities: The Literature of Immigration and the Ethnic American Experience” (July 8, 15, 22, 29)

Major support for The Immigrant Experience: A Journey to Becoming American has been provided by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: great ideas brought to life. This program has also been designated a We, The People project.

Arcadia Community Center is located at 240 W. Huntington Drive
Arcadia, CA 91066.
