

CSULA LIFELONG LEARNING PROGRAM

SPRING 2009

FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL: 323-343-4695 OR EMAIL: lifearncsula@yahoo.com
WEBSITE at Cal State LA: <http://www.calstatela.edu/exed/profdeve/osher/>

EVENTS

Hollenbeck Palms OLLI Featured Presenters

573 S. Boyle Ave.

Los Angeles, CA 90033

323-263-6195 RSVP to: lifearncsula@yahoo.com)

1) "Murder and Molecules: Scientific Detection in Mystery Fiction"

Date: Wednesday, March 25

Time: 11 a.m. - noon

Description: Presentation by Dr. Harold Goldwhite, Professor Emeritus of Chemistry, CSULA

2) "Poetry with Potter"

Date: Wednesday, May 27

Time: 11 a.m. - noon

Description: Presentation by Vilma Potter, Professor Emerita of English, CSULA from her second volume of poetry

Center for Contemporary Poetry and Poetics, California State University, Los Angeles

Date: Tuesday, April 7

Time: 6:30 p.m.

Location: Golden Eagle Ballroom

Description: Featured reader in the Jean Burden Poetry series. Victor Hernandez Cruz, featured on Bill Moyers' "Language of Life" series, has received numerous awards including the Guggenheim Fellowship and the New York Poetry Foundation Award. He was elected as a Chancellor of the Academy of American Poets in 2008. He currently divides his time between Morocco and Puerto Rico. Sponsored by the CSULA Department of English; open to the public; reception following reading.

Center for Contemporary Poetry and Poetics (continued)

May - June 2009

John Siddique is British Council
Poet-in-Residence

John Siddique is the fifth annual British Council Poet-in-Residence in partnership with National Endowment for the Arts and Huntington Library from May 15 to June 12. Events will be announced soon! See <http://www.calstatela.edu/centers/ccpp/NEWSEVENTS.html>

ARDIE PARTY – Salute for his 80th Birthday Year!

Date: Friday, JUNE 5

Time: 1:30 – 3 p.m.

Location: CSULA campus Applied Gerontology Instit, C98 Salazar Hall

Description: Festivities abound to celebrate the 80th birthday year with Prof. Ardie Bryant, Ambassador of Tap and CSULA jazz tap master teacher. To RSVP call 323-343-4695 or email lifearncsula@yahoo.com

OFF-CAMPUS CLASSES

ATHERTON BAPTIST HOMES

Villa Lounge
214 S. Atlantic Blvd.
Alhambra, Ca. 91801
626-289-4178

MEMORIES AND MEMOIRS

Time: 10:30 - noon

Dates: Tuesdays, March 3, 10, 24, 31, April 7, 14

Course Description: During this six- week course (no class on March 17), your life experiences will be shared through group discussion and writings. We will create a time line and provide subjects to recall, remember and reflect.

No writing experience or computer skills are necessary, just a bagful of memories!

Faculty: Marilyn Kronmal, Ed.D., Executive Director, Lifelong Learning Program, CSULA

GRIFFITH PARK ADULT COMMUNITY CENTER

3203 Riverside Dr
Los Angeles, CA 90027
323-644-5579

RESILIENCE AND CREATIVE EXPRESSION AMONG HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

Time: 2:15 – 3:30 p.m.

Dates: Wednesday, June 10

Description: Contemporary artistic expression of Holocaust survivors now living in Los Angeles will be featured, to illustrate how creativity promotes resilience. Presented by Connie Corley, Ph.D., M.S.W., Professor of Social Work, Associate Director for Lifelong Learning, Applied Gerontology Institute, CSULA

AGING AND HEALTH: FACTS AND FICTION

Time: 2:15 – 3:45 p.m.

Dates: Thursday June 25 and Wednesday, July 1

Description: Dr. Marilyn Friedman, Professor Emerita of Nursing (CSULA) will discuss commonly held beliefs about age-related changes and which of these are myths or scientifically accepted knowledge. Major advances in gerontology will be covered.

SOUTH PASADENA SENIOR CENTER

1102 Oxley Street
South Pasadena, CA 91030
626-403-7360

POETRY AS BIOGRAPHY

Time: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Date: Tuesdays, April 7, 14, 21, 28

Course Description: Reading and discussion of original poetry from her latest book, "Tracks" and will include other contemporary poets – such as Lucille Clifton, Rita Dove, William Stafford, and others.

Faculty: Professor Emerita, English Vilma Potter, CSULA