

In July of 2009, members of the California Faculty Association voted to allow the California State University Chancellor to impose unpaid furlough days for all professors and lecturers at all 23 Cal State Campuses. The purpose of furloughs is to minimize the need for faculty layoffs given the current budget crisis. At Cal State LA, this means that most professors and lecturers are required to take 6 days of unpaid leave each quarter, during which time they are prohibited from performing any university work.
