

American Literature Association 25th Annual Conference

May 22-25, 2014

The conference fee covers the costs of the conference including the opening and closing receptions. It does not include any meals. All of those who are on the program are required to pre-register. For those who register before April 15, 2014, the pre-registration rate is $90 ($60 for Graduate Students, Independent Scholars, and Retired Faculty). After April 15, the conference fee becomes $100 ($75 for Graduate Students, Independent Scholars, and Retired Faculty). Registration Information for the conference will be available on the website in January. Individuals may register on line or mail in a check but please do NOT mail any checks until the registration form is posted. The website will list the program as soon as it is available –a draft will probably appear during the second week of March. Copies of the printed program will be mailed in late April to those who pre-register.

ALA Membership: Membership in the ALA is not required in order to propose or present a paper. In fact, technically the members of the American Literature Association are the various author societies. Individuals may keep informed about the activities of the ALA by checking our website (www.americanliterature.org), which is the primary source for information about ALA activities.

The easiest way to find out about the conference and all ALA activities is by consulting our website:

www.americanliterature.org