22nd Annual Conference on American Literature

May 26-29, 2011

DRAFT PROGRAM

This is the final opportunity to make corrections before we go to press!

April 20, 2011

The Boston Westin Hotel is now sold out. Please contact A Room With A View for information on the designated ALA overflow hotel. They will secure the lowest available rates within walking distance of The Westin Hotel.

A Room With A View can be reached at 1-800-780-4343
This is a FREE SERVICE for all ALA attendees

This on-line draft of the program is designed to provide information to participants in our 22nd conference and provide them with an opportunity to make corrections. Participants should check the description of their papers and panels to ensure that names and titles and other information are spelled appropriately.

Times of Panels: If there is a conflict in the program (i.e., someone is booked to appear in two places at the same time), please let me know immediately. The program indicates that a few slots for business meetings are still available, but it will be difficult to make other changes. You can presume that the day of your panel is now fixed in stone (and it will not change without the concurrence of every person on that panel!) but it may be necessary to make minor changes in the time of a panel.

Audio-Visual Equipment: The program also lists the audio-visual equipment that has been requested for each panel. Please note that it may be difficult or impossible to add any audio-visual equipment at this point, but individuals may make such requests. The ALA normally provides a digital projector and screen to those who have requested it at the time the panel or paper is submitted. Individuals will need to provide their own laptops and those using Macs are advised to bring along the proper cable to hook up with the projector. A couple of panels have also asked for DVD players and these are provided where noted. If you can use a digital projector and your laptop instead, please do so and let us know as soon as possible. Please note that we no longer provide vcrs or overhead projectors or tape players.

Registration and Hotel: Participants should pre-register for the conference by going to the website at www.americanliterature.org and either completing on line-registration which allows you to pay with a credit card or completing the registration form and mailing it along with the appropriate check to the address indicated. All participants are required to pre-register. Please note that registration fees go up after April 15, 2011 and that we will not be able to accept credit cards at the hotel. It is also important that you make your hotel reservation as soon as possible. Details for that are also on the main ALA home page.

Please email all corrections directly to abendixen@tamu.edu And copy the organizer of your session.

If something prevents you from presenting your paper, please notify the chair of your panel and the conference director as soon as possible. Please send any questions to the conference director at abendixen@tamu.edu

Corrections and Changes should be possible through the month of March. An updated program will be posted every Wednesday until we go to press during the second week of April. Programs will be mailed to those who have pre-registered during the first week of May and a note will be posted here indicating when the mailing has gone out.

Thank you for your support of the American Literature Association – Alfred Bendixen, 2011 Conference Director

Contemporary South Asian and Asian American Poetry: A Creative Reading
Organized by The Circle for Asian American Literary Studies

In this creative reading that seeks to highlight poets of South Asian and Asian American descent, these three poets write in ways that challenge existing tropes and forms. Poet and novelist Meena Alexander, Distinguished Professor of English at the City University of New York, will read poetry selections from her book Quickly Changing River. Poets Bushra Rehman and Jee Leong Koh will also read from their published poetry. Rehman’s poetry has been featured most recently in the 2010 anthology, Indivisible: An Anthology of Contemporary South Asian American Poetry, and Koh has published two books of poetry, Payday Loans and Equal to the Earth, and his third book is forthcoming in March 2011.

The Raven's Trail: A Walking Tour of Poe's Boston

This 90-minute tour explores Poe's connections to Boston, from his birth here in 1809 to his return as a young man in 1827 and his controversial appearance before the Boston Lyceum in 1845. Though Poe spent only about a year living in Boston, he was intensely engaged throughout his career with the writers and editors he called "Frogpondians." Sites visited include the Poe birthplace, Edgar Allan Poe Square, the grave of Charles Sprague (called the banker-poet of Boston), the Frog Pond on Boston Common, and the King's Chapel Burying Ground. Your guide is Paul Lewis, Boston College English professor and the chairman of the Edgar Allan Poe Foundation of Boston. Meet at Poe Square (intersection of Boylston and Charles Street South: in front of the Boloco Burrito shop at 2 Park Plaza, Boston 02116) at 5:20pm.

"Stanley's House": A film by Tobe Carey

The film, a work of memory, art and love, contains rare visuals and shots of Kunitz reading nine of his poems, including "Halley's Comet," "The Portrait," "An Old Cracked Tune," and "The Testing Tree," which are Worcester-based and often autobiographical. One critic has called "Stanley's House" a "meditation on how place forms the sensibility of an artist." The Raven's Trail: A Walking Tour of Poe's Boston

This 90-minute tour explores Poe's connections to Boston, from his birth here in 1809 to his return as a young man in 1827 and his controversial appearance before the Boston Lyceum in 1845. Though Poe spent only about a year living in Boston, he was intensely engaged throughout his career with the writers and editors he called "Frogpondians." Sites visited include the Poe birthplace, Edgar Allan Poe Square, the grave of Charles Sprague (called the banker-poet of Boston), the Frog Pond on Boston Common, and the King's Chapel Burying Ground. Your guide is Paul Lewis, Boston College English professor and the chairman of the Edgar Allan Poe Foundation of Boston. Meet at Poe Square (intersection of Boylston and Charles Street South: in front of the Boloco Burrito shop at 2 Park Plaza, Boston 02116) at 5:20pm.
