This on-line program is designed to provide information to participants in our 23rd conference. Our printer will mail programs to all who have pre-registered (except international scholars) on May 7, 2010 using first class mail.

If you have not yet pre-registered, you may go on line and register now or register at the conference. If you plan to register at the conference, it will speed things up if you copy and complete the registration form available on the website at www.americanliterature.org and bring it along with the appropriate check to the registration desk at the conference. Please note that we cannot accept credit cards at the conference but you can use them if you register on line. Thank you for your support of the ALA.

The Hyatt Regency Embarcadero Center Hotel is now sold out. Please contact A Room With A View for information on the designated ALA overflow hotel. They will secure the lowest available rates at hotels within a short distance of The Hyatt Regency Hotel.

In the event that rooms become available at The Hyatt Regency Hotel due to cancellations, A Room With A View will notify conference attendees and help transfer reservations back to The Hyatt Regency Hotel in the order in which they were booked.

A Room With A View can be reached at 1-800-780-4343. This is a FREE SERVICE for all ALA attendees.

Featured Reading
Reading by Giannina Braschi
Introduction by Manuel Broncano, Texas A&M International University

AmazonCrossing has just released a series of books by celebrated Hispanic-American author Giannina Braschi, including the explosive new work of fiction UNITED STATES OF BANANA, the Pulitzer-nominated Spanglish novel YO-YO BOING! and the postmodern poetry classic EMPIRE OF DREAMS. Her cutting-edge work dramatizes the trials and triumphs of the American immigrant. With a Ph.D. from SUNY-Stony Brook, she has taught at Rutgers, Queens, and Colgate Universities and has received honors from the National Endowment for the Arts, New York Foundation for the Arts, El Diario, PEN, Ford Foundation, Danforth Scholarship, Instituto de Cultura Puertorriqueña, and The Reed Foundation. Giannina Braschi and her editor Tess O'Dwyer will perform a medley of dramatic excerpts from her collected works.

Those attending the session will receive free copies of Braschi's books compliments of AmazonCrossing. A book signing will follow.
