SCHOLARSHIP FOR TEACHER CERTIFICATION IN JAPANESE AT CSULA

California State University, Los Angeles is pleased to announce that with support from the Japan Foundation, in Winter 2011 it will offer $300-$1,000 per person tuition subsidies (depending on the number of applicants) for primary or secondary school teachers of the Japanese language who need university credits or units toward renewing or receiving their teacher certification. The available courses are:

JAPN 307
Japanese Literature in Translation (4 units)
Tuesday and Thursday: 4:20 pm – 6:00 pm (King Hall B3015)

JAPN 400B
Advanced Reading and Composition (4 units)
Monday and Wednesday: 4:20 pm – 6:00 pm (King Hall B2012)

JAPN 403
Contrastive Analysis of Japanese and English Structures (4 units)
Tuesday and Thursday: 6:10 pm – 7:50 pm (King Hall B2012)

The Winter quarter runs from January 3, 2011 to March 11, 2011. Up to ten applicants will be selected on a first-come first-served basis. The application deadline is December 1, 2010. The application form is downloaded from <http://www.calstatela.edu/academic/mld/announcements.php>.

The subsidy is given only to those who complete the course; those who drop or stop attending class during the quarter will have to pay the full tuition for 4 units ($1,228). For more information, contact Dr. Sachiko Matsunaga at (323) 343-4230 or <smatsun@calstatela.edu>.
