

U.S. HISTORY

AAAS 1500 - Asian-American History (also listed as HIST 1500) (3)

Survey of the Asian experience in America from 1850 to the present. Emphasis on regional and historical context, and the intersectionality of race and ethnicity with class and gender. GE C AM; (RE)

CLS 1200 - Chicanas/os Latinas/os, Gender, and Class in the US Experience (3)

This course is designed to address the intersectionality of gender, race, sexuality, ability, and class in the US historical experience with special attention to the Chicana/o Latina/o populace. GE C AM; (RE)

HIST 1500 - Asian-American History (also listed as AAAS 1500) (3)

Survey of the Asian experience in America from 1850 to the present. Emphasis on regional and historical context, and the intersectionality of race and ethnicity with class and gender. GE C AM; (RE)

HIST 2010 - United States History to 1877 (3)

Political, economic, social and cultural development of the United States and its diverse peoples from earliest settlement through Reconstruction. GE C AM; (D)

HIST 2020 - United States History, 1877 to Present (3)

Political, economic, social, and cultural development of the United States and its diverse peoples since 1877. GE C AM; (D)

HIST 2050 - Race and Ethnicity in United States History (3)

This course explores U.S. history through the lens of race and ethnicity from the 1400s to the present, emphasizing race and ethnicity's intersections with gender and socio-economic class. GE C AM; (RE)

PAS 1510 - African American History (3)

This course explores the history of African Americans, from the beginning of the nation to the present, including periods of enslavement, Jim Crow, Civil Rights, and post-Civil Rights. GE C AM; (RE)

*U.S. CONSTITUTION STATE/LOCAL GOV'T

CLS 1300 - The Constitution, Equity and Chicanas/os and Latinas/os (3)

The course addresses the intersection of Chicanas/Latinos with the US and California Constitutions, incorporating fundamental Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals decisions with their impact on US society. GE D AM; (RE)

PAS 1100 - Racial Equality, Government and the Constitution (3)

This course examines the role of the U.S. Constitution and state governments in restricting and advancing racial equality. Particular attention is given to California state and local governments. GE D AM; (RE) (CL)

*POLS 1000 - Government and American Society (3)

American political system with emphasis on role and function of government in social context of a democratic political system. Satisfies U.S. Constitution and California state and local government requirements. Not open to students who have completed an introductory college course in U.S. government. GE D AM