California State University
Los Angeles

Papers with either an international or interdisciplinary focus are welcomed. The Symposium particularly values papers with both international and interdisciplinary elements. In either event, papers should contribute an original theoretical idea and/or empirical insight to at least one of the core academic business disciplines—including accounting, finance, economics, management, marketing, international business, strategy, entrepreneurship, business law, logistics, informatics, and ethics. We seek to publish works that will be of interest to a broad business readership. Full papers and well developed works-in-progress will be considered for presentation.

To submit your paper:

- 1) Send the manuscript with no author or identifying information as an attachment in MS Word format to jiibr@mail.com, with the subject heading "Symposium submission." Please include a "Works Cited" at the end of the manuscript and observe APA format throughout.
- 2) In the body of the accompanying email, include your paper title and author information (including email and telephone contact).

Please send your submission as early as possible, as decisions will be made on a rolling basis. The final deadline for submission is Friday, August 22, 2014. If accepted for presentation, your paper will be included in the electronic proceedings of the Symposium, or will be selected for publication in a special Symposium section of Volume 2 of the Journal of International and Interdisciplinary Business Research. We anticipate that the electronic proceedings will become available in October 2014. Volume 2 of the Journal will be published in May 2015. The Journal will be indexed and available online so that the works published will be easily accessible worldwide.
