1.2 Senator Albey announced: I wanted to remind everyone that we will be hosting the University Retreat on Friday, December 6, 8:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Please come out and join us.

2. Chair Prabhu reported a response from Barbara Queen to a concern raised by Senator Amaya on October 8, 2019:

Concern: Most recently, it has been brought to our attention that the some of the Braille writing system in King Hall had been vandalized, making it harder for students who identify with visual impairments. A university wide email was sent out, stating that the issue was identified and it was being resolved during that time the email was sent. I wanted to follow up, and see if the Braille writing system that had been vandalized had been replaced. It was a concern of mine since this issue has an immediate effect on our students who identify with a visual impairment. Thank you.

Response: Our Printing Shop has replaced the signage that was damaged. Apologies for delayed response.

2.2 Chair Prabhu reported a response from Barbara Queen to a concern raised by Senator Loot on October 22, 2019:

Concern: On Thursday, October 10, 4 students were stuck in the new and only working elevator in the library. I was working at the Office of Graduate Studies when one student came up to me to inform me that there were students inside the elevator and cannot get out. I checked on them and told them to calm down because I am going to ask for help. I called the Library front desk twice nobody answered, so I called Matthew Prutsman. Somebody came down to let them out probably 10-15 minutes after I called them. There were incidents that graduate students would tell me that the elevator is acting weird and felt like it was going to drop anytime. One time I experienced that too, the elevator door closed immediately and my backpack almost got stuck when it closed. I don’t use the elevator anymore because of the fear of getting stuck in there. There are 3 elevators in Library North. 2 were shut down for maintenance or repair. Those elevators have not been operational since the semester started. Hope someone gives attention to this because this is a burden especially for our ADA students. This can also be traumatic for students. Thank you. Response: The Oct 10 issue was due to a fault that our elevator technician believes is corrected and is monitoring daily. If we can help spread the word to please report any issues even minor in nature we are happy to go out and check. It is easy using the link below, and click on “Report an Issue”. The link is located on our Facilities Services website: http://www.calstatela.edu/facility. The new elevator we believe is stable for operation and are monitoring it daily. The second elevator replacement is underway and is scheduled to be complete early March 2020. The service elevator went down due to a mechanical issue and is now operational as of yesterday, Oct 22. Please know that we have two additional elevators at Library South that also access Library North via the bridge structure at all floor levels. I appreciate you passing along this information, please let me know any questions or additional concerns.

2.3 Senator Hanan raised the following concern: In KH, there is an issue with the computer labs. They fall asleep and then you can’t turn the computers back on. When I spoke with technology about this, they said that this is happening university-wide. Today, for 20 minutes, I tried to get the instructor monitor on – doesn’t work. This isn’t one classroom where they fall asleep at night and then when you try to turn them on in the morning, it’s a problem. It impairs instruction because you can’t use the overhead; you can’t do anything.
