EO 665

• Caution! Students have a maximum of one year (3 Quarters) to complete all remedial coursework or the student will be disenrolled from the University. If they are not in compliance with E.O. 665 students may attend and complete their remediation at a Community College. The time limit to complete the work at the Community College is one year from their “disenrollment”.

• Upon proof of successful completion of their remediation to the Office of Undergraduate Studies, they may return to CSULA without any additional paperwork.
Math and English Exemptions

• SAT
• ACT
• EAP assessment
• Special programs such as community college partnerships
AP Credit for GE Courses

- AP Scores of 3 or better may grant you credit for GE requirements

- Official scores must be submitted to Admissions Office and the Enrollment Services for credit

- Check online ecatalog for more info.

Do not take Critical Thinking before Fall 2016!
General Education Tips

• Do NOT take A3 Critical Thinking until Fall 2016 (or later).
• Try to finish your diversity requirement before Fall 2016
• For all business majors besides BA in Economics, Econ 201 will double count as one of your Social Sciences.
• Take Bus 101 within your first two quarters.
Important Information about GE Courses

• Complete G.E. Block A within 45 units with a C or better (Do NOT take Critical Thinking A3 until Fall 2016)

• Complete remediation courses within the first year

• Remediation courses count towards full-time student status but not towards graduation unit requirements

• Declare a major and option by 45 units
What Courses Do I Take This Fall?

Priority:

- Math
- English
- BUS 101

- Refer to Course Planner for additional options
Student Responsibilities

• You are solely responsible for knowing the graduation requirements you are accountable for – All info is available on your Advisement Report, University Catalog (e-catalog) and university website

• Use Advisement Report as a guiding/planning tool
  – You are responsible for your own Education Plan

• Appointments with advisors:
  – Appointments are necessary!
