

Discussion Posting Rubric

Possible rubric for a discussion posting (Moodle Forum)
Rating:	5. Excellent	3. Satisfactory	2. Underdeveloped	1. Limited	0. No credit points	The post is: -focused - explains and analyzes using examples -demonstrates an awareness of limitations or implications. -considers other perspectives when appropriate. The entry reflects in-depth engagement with the topic.	The post is: -reasonably focused. -explanations and/or analysis are mostly based on examples or other evidence. -makes fewer connections between ideas or does not consider implications -not fully developed. The entry reflects moderate engagement with the topic.	The post is: - mostly description or summary, -does not consider multiple perspectives -does not make connections between ideas. The entry reflects passing engagement with the topic.	The post is unfocused, or simply rehashes previous comments. The entry displays no evidence of student engagement with the topic.	The post is missing or consists of one or two disconnected sentences.
Adapted from: Mark Sample, "A Rubric for Evaluating Student Blogs," Chronicle of Higher Education, 2010					