B. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicates the student's high school completion status:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- Secondary school leaving certification
- Copy of test transcripts of State authorized examinations (i.e. HiSet, TASC)
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript that indicates a passed exam or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree
- Certification from a college official that shows academic excellence in high school and meets criteria for admission into a two-year degree program
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, please contact the Center for Student Financial aid at Cal State LA.
