Survivors Helping Survivors
The Institute on Violence, Abuse & Trauma (IVAT) has been awarded organizational scholarships from the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC). These scholarships will support professional development opportunities for crime victims/survivors at the 20th International Summit & Training on Violence, Abuse & Trauma. If you have been the victim of a crime and use your experience of survival to assist others, you may qualify for a scholarship to attend the 20th International Summit & Training. Funds are available to support registration and lodging in San Diego from August 23–26, 2015.

Criteria and Documentation required for Crime Victim/Survivor Scholarships:
– One year of volunteer or advocacy service to other victims of crime (provide names and contact information for agencies or organizations for whom you have worked).
– Describe the incident in which you were victimized including the nature of the crime, city, state and year of occurrence.
– Explain how you intend to implement the skills and knowledge acquired as a result of attending the Summit in ongoing work with crime victims.
– Describe your reasons for requesting the scholarship including details of financial need (your agency/division/unit/department's current operating and training budget is required).

Application Deadline: Friday, August 14, 2015
