

Global Education, Global City

Why Cal State LA?

- A well-rounded and experienced faculty.
- A diverse graduate student cohort.
- Access to the vast cultural, political, and intellectual resources found in the city of Los Angeles.
- A schedule of evening classes designed to accommodate students with full or part-time jobs.
- A record of graduates accepted into leading Ph.D. programs and other academic programs, as well as hired at community colleges and other public and private institutions.

CAL STATE LA
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

AN OPPORTUNITY TO EARN AN MA DEGREE IN POLITICAL SCIENCE IN LOS ANGELES

The Political Science MA Program
California State University,
Los Angeles

The Cal State Los Angeles Department of Political Science offers a comprehensive Master of Arts degree designed to provide a systematic introduction to the study of political science. The program prepares students for academic and professional careers. Upon completing your degree you will be better prepared to work in government, politics, business, or the non-profit sector, or to pursue a Ph.D., attend law or other professional schools, or teach at a community college.

The program accepts students to begin in both Fall and Spring semesters, and can be completed within two years.

How to Apply

Applications materials can be found at:
www.calstatela.edu/dept/pol_sci/

Or contact:

Prof. Taylor Dark
Political Science MA Graduate Advisor
California State University, Los Angeles
5151 State University Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90032-8226

Email: tdark@calstatela.edu