Policy on Alcohol and Illegal Drugs

In accord with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1990 and Section 120a of the Higher Education Act, California State University, Los Angeles provides the following notification to all its students, faculty members, staff members and administrators:

Standards of Conduct

University standards prohibit the unlawful possession, manufacture, cultivation, use, or distribution of illegal drugs (as those terms are defined by State and Federal Laws) on campus property. The University also prohibits the illegal possession, distribution and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Illegal Drugs

Federal and State laws on drug abuse provide for stringent penalties for illegal possession, manufacture, cultivation, sale, transportation, use or administration of any narcotic drug; more stringent penalties for those convicted of previous narcotics offenses than for first offenders; and extremely stringent penalties for those who in any way involve minors in the use of narcotics. A person is subject to prosecution if he or she illegally uses or is under the influence of narcotics, or knowingly visits a place where illegal narcotic use is occurring. Marijuana and other illegal organic substances are covered by similar laws and there is an additional violation against the cultivation or processing of these drugs in this state. The barbiturates (e.g. yellow jackets, red devils), and amphetamines (e.g. bennies, dexies, etc.)—called restricted dangerous drugs in the California Narcotic Act—are similarly covered; penalties for those convicted of illegal possession, manufacture, cultivation, sale, transportation, use or administration of these drugs are severe. In 1966, LSD and related hallucinogenic drugs were added to the list of restricted dangerous drugs, and their use for other than authorized research was prohibited by California law.

Alcohol

The University’s policy with respect to alcohol follows the laws of the State of California and the City of Los Angeles. All persons, regardless of age, or status are governed by these laws and regulations. State and city laws, prohibit: (1) the purchase or sale to, possession of or consumption of alcoholic beverages by anyone under 21; (2) the serving of alcohol to an already intoxicated person; and (3) the manufacture, use of provision of a false state identification card, driver’s license, or certificate of birth or baptism. If convicted for violating these laws, punishment—up to and including jail sentence—may result.

Health Risks

The serious health risks of various illegal drugs and alcohol are well documented. Use of illegal drugs or excessive use of alcohol can damage:

- Physiological processes including brain functioning, digestive disorders, liver, heart, and lung problems;

- Psychological and mental processes including memory, judgment, personality, reproduction and fetal development, and may induce psychotic episodes.

Many thousands of deaths each year are either directly or indirectly attributable to substance abuse through accidents, illnesses, and violence. Brochures describing the specific health effects of various illegal drugs and of alcohol are available in the Health Center, the University-Student Union and in Residence Life.
Counseling and Medical Assistance

The University’s interest in the educational welfare of its students is demonstrated through primary concern for remedial measures. The University makes available the full counseling and medical resources to assist students in constructively confronting problems leading to involvement with drugs or alcohol. Every student concerned about problems resulting from the use of illegal drugs or alcohol is encouraged to seek help from the Health Center at (323) 343-3333. The Health Center will treat such voluntary calls from the students confidentially and not subject them to disciplinary action. The Health Center also maintains a complete listing of referral resources in the community that can provide students with specific assistance once an assessment has been made by a physician or counselor.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Illegal Drugs: State law (Section 41301, of Title 5, California Code of regulations) allows the University to take disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or expulsion, against any student who sells or knowingly possesses any illegal drug while on campus property. University action may be taken whether or not independent action is taken by civil authorities. Conviction in a criminal court does not necessarily preclude University disciplinary action.

Alcohol: University Administrative Procedure 19, Use of Alcoholic Beverages on Campus, explains the restrictions beyond City and State laws that govern the possession and use of alcohol on campus. Alcoholic beverages may only be sold at approved catered events. Also, when a recognized student club sponsors an on-campus event, attendance is limited to members of that club and their guests. Organizations violating this policy may be subject to administrative action ranging from probation to removal of official recognition. Individuals who violate Procedure 19, are subject to disciplinary action up to and including suspension or expulsion (Source: 2000-2001 Eagle Planner and Handbook).

The use of alcoholic beverages must be in compliance with California State law and is strictly limited to persons 21 years of age and older.

Policy on Weapons

The use or possession of firearms or other weapons by students, employees, or visitors while on campus is prohibited by law. Duly sworn police officers are exempt from this law.

Convicted Sexual Offender Registration Laws

Effective October 28, 2002, Penal Code 290.1 was expanded and requires sexual offenders to register with the University Police. Convicted sexual offenders are required to register under Section 290 if they are residing on the university campus; enrolled as a student of the university; employed by the university, either full-time or part-time (includes paid employees or volunteers); or working or carrying on a vocation at the university (e.g. contractors) for more than 14 days or for an aggregate period exceeding 30 days in a calendar year (including paid workers as well as volunteers).

Persons listed above must register with the University Police within five working days of commencing enrollment or employment with the University. Registrants are also required to notify the University Police within five working days of ceasing to be enrolled or employed, or ceasing to carry on a vocation at the University.

Public information regarding sex offenders in California may be obtained by viewing the Department of Justice Online Megan’s Law Web Site at http://caag.state.ca.us/megan/. You can also obtain information by contacting the Los Angeles Police Department—Hollenbeck Station at (213) 485-2942.

The University encourages the accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to the University Police and appropriate law enforcement agencies. Institutional personnel will assist students in notifying these authorities upon request.
n November of 2001 the California State University, Los Angeles Police Department was nationally accredited and was reaccredited in December of 2004. The department met the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA), Inc.'s state-of-the-art standards. This voluntary process to gain accreditation is a highly prized recognition of law enforcement professional excellence. The process is designed to help formalize essential management practices; improve service delivery; strengthen crime prevention capabilities; and boost citizen and staff confidence in the agency.

The University Police have 19 police officer positions. Our sworn officers patrol the campus on foot or by marked vehicle and are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week to respond to emergencies that may develop. For a criminal, medical, or fire emergency call 9-1-1 from any telephone or pay telephone at no charge. You may also use the emergency phones that are positioned throughout the campus. For other assistance, call the University Police at (323) 343-3700 or on-campus extension 3-3700. The University Police telephone is also answered 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Our Investigations unit is responsible for the follow-up investigation of crimes occurring on campus. The unit interfaces with neighboring law enforcement agencies assisting with investigations of crimes that may have occurred off-campus but are related to the Cal State L.A. community.

University Police Enforcement Authority

Police Officers for the Department of Public Safety are vested with the same peace officer powers of arrest and responsibilities as other police officers within the State of California. Their authority is granted through legislative action defined in the California Education and Penal Codes. Their primary jurisdiction covers all property owned and operated by the University, including adjacent public streets and property.

Reporting Offenses to Other CSULA Offices

Students are encouraged to report any problems with the campus environment to the Department of Public Safety's University Police. We also encourage the reporting of crimes to any campus official such as the Office of Student Affairs staff, Health Center Counselors, Housing Services Directors, or any other campus administrator. These institutional personnel will assist students in notifying the appropriate law enforcement authorities upon request so an official police report may be taken. At minimum, institutional personnel will notify the University Police of such a report for the inclusion in the annual statistical report.

To report a crime or an emergency:

- Call the police. Give your name, telephone number and location.
- Give clear and accurate information.
- Be prepared to supply suspect and vehicle description and the direction of travel.
- Please do not hang up! Follow the instructions of the police dispatcher.

What to do after you have been sexually assaulted or raped on or off campus:

- Go to a safe place and call the University Police or your local police department;
- Do not shower, bathe, douche, wash your mouth, or do anything else that might destroy evidence;
- Do not change or destroy clothing—if you feel you must change your clothes, place each item of clothing removed in a separate paper bag;
- Do not clean or straighten up your house or any other area, if it was the scene of the assault—do not touch areas that the rapist may have touched;
- Do not destroy or discard sheets and towels you may have used;
- Seek medical attention by going to a hospital emergency room for evidence collection, medical care, and information on screening for sexually transmitted infections and/or pregnancy; and
- Call a rape treatment center hotline—counselors are available 24 hours a day to provide rape crisis counseling and information regarding your options.

Alcohol, other Drugs and Sexual Assault

- Alcohol is implicated in more than 90% of all nationally reported campus rapes.
- Alcohol and other drugs contribute to sexual assault and rape in a number of ways:
  - Alcohol and other drugs can reduce inhibitions and cloud judgment.
  - Some perpetrators deliberately drink alcoholic beverages to justify or excuse rape.
  - Alcohol and other drugs can reduce the ability to recognize danger signals and to handle an assault.
- Alcohol and drug abuse can contribute to sexually transmitted disease and psychological depression.

Policies

The Student Health Center reports details of violent crime incidents involving patients it treats to local law enforcement agencies, as required by California Penal Code 11160-11163.5.² This is not a formal police report and the police cannot take action until the victim makes a report of a sexual assault.³ In addition, the Student Health Center reports statistical data regarding certain incidents to the Department of Public Safety in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act.⁴ The counselors consistently encourage their clients to report crimes to the University Police on a voluntary basis to prevent future crimes. The counselors do not disclose information to the University Police without the consent of the client, unless there is an immediate threat to safety. Any reporting of statistics to comply with this act is done by reporting numbers and not names so the information provided by clients is confidential for inclusion in the annual security report.

Options following an alleged on- or off-campus (campus-related activity) sexual assault or rape:

- Cal State L.A. will provide survivors with information and services (as required by federal and state law) related to:
  - University sexual assault policy.

What is Stalking?
Stalking is a crime. It includes someone repeatedly following you, watching you, phoning you, writing or e-mailing you, or communicating with you in other ways that seem obsessive or make you afraid or concerned for your safety. For example, someone showing up where you are, even though this person has no business being there; leaving unwanted items for you to find; making unsolicited phone calls; following or spying on you; vandalizing your property; making threats against family, friends, or pets.

What You Can Do to Help Stop Violence Against Women
- Recognize that no one deserves to be sexually assaulted, stalked, or victimized in any way.
- Don’t commit any behavior that may be considered dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or any other form of violence.
- Never use force, coercion, threats, alcohol or other drugs to engage in sexual activity.
- Take responsibility for your actions.
- Avoid alcohol and other drugs.
- Remember ‘no’ means NO! and ‘stop’ means STOP!
- Report incidents of violence to law enforcement and campus authorities.
- Discuss dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking with friends—speak out against violence and clear up misconceptions.
- Don’t mistake submission for consent.
What You Can Do to Help Minimize Your Risk of Becoming a Victim

- Be aware. Does your partner threaten to hurt you or your children? Say it’s your fault if he or she hits you, then promises it won’t happen again (but it does)? Put you down in public? Force you to have sex when you don’t want to? Follow you? Send you unwanted messages and gifts?
- Be assertive. Speak up.
- Stay sober and watch out for dates and/or anyone who tries to get you drunk or high.
- Clearly communicate limits to partners.
- Never leave a party with someone you don’t know well.
- Trust your feelings. If it feels wrong, it probably is.
- Learn all you can and talk with your friends. Help them stay safe.
- Report incidents of violence to law enforcement and campus authorities.

What You Can Do if You are a Victim

In General

- Go to a safe place as soon as possible.
- Report the crime to University Police or local law enforcement.
- Call a domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking hotline.
- Preserve evidence.
- Call a friend for help.
- Know that you are not at fault. You did not cause the abuse to occur, and you are not responsible for the violent behavior of someone else.

Dating/Domestic Violence

- Let trusted friends and neighbors know of your situation, and develop a plan and visual signal for when you need help.
- During an assault, do what you can to stay away from the kitchen (the abuser can find weapons, such as knives) and rooms where you may become trapped. Try to reach a room that has a phone.
- If violence is unavoidable, make yourself a small target; dive into a corner and curl up into a ball with your face protected and arms around each side of your head, fingers entwined.
- Teach your children how to get to safety and call 9-1-1.
- Practice how to get out safely. Practice with your children.

Sexual Assault

- No one can tell you whether you should resist, fight back, or submit. Your best choice is what you believe will ensure your survival. Remain as calm as possible and keep assessing the situation as it happens. During an assault you might try to:
  - Negotiate or stall for time.
  - Distract the assailant and escape to a safe place.
  - Scream to attract attention.
  - Use physical resistance.
  - Submit—it’s very important to know that submission is not the same as giving consent.

Stalking

- Tell friends, family and coworkers about your situation. Let them know not to give anyone information about your schedule.
- Vary your daily schedule as much as you can and change your travel routes.
- Get rides to school/work with friends or family.
- Save all e-mails, correspondence, voice messages, and gifts for evidence.
- Change your e-mail address, if necessary. Choose a gender-neutral name. Don’t fill out online profiles.
- Keep a log of all stalking incidents.
Reporting Dating/Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault & Stalking

Cal State L.A. students, faculty, and staff are strongly encouraged to report all campus-related incidents of dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking to University Police or local law enforcement and the Office for Equity and Diversity. Reporting these crimes can help:

- Protect the victim’s safety.
- Ensure the victim receives proper medical care, support services, and information regarding her/his rights.
- Stop the perpetrator from committing future assaults.

Perpetrator Sanctions

Perpetrators of dating/domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and other forms of violence are subject to campus disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion. In addition, perpetrators are subject to arrest by University Police or local law enforcement authorities and criminal prosecution. Perpetrators may also face civil prosecution.

Victims’ Rights

Victims of campus-related assaults are entitled certain rights that include:

- The right to have any and all assaults against them treated with seriousness.
- The right, as victims, to be treated with dignity.
- The right to the full and prompt cooperation and assistance of campus personnel in notifying the proper authorities.
- The right to be free from any kind of pressure from campus personnel that victims (i) not report crimes; (ii) not report crimes committed against them to civil and criminal authorities or to campus law enforcement and disciplinary officials; or (iii) report crimes as lesser offenses than the victims perceive them to be.

- The right to be free from any kind of suggestion that campus sexual assault victims not report, or under-report, crimes because victims are somehow ‘responsible’ for the commission of crimes against them.

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA) is located in the Student Affairs building, room 108 (SA 108) and is a valuable resource for students. Here, students can obtain copies of important policy documents including the Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities, Standards for Student Conduct, Academic Honesty policy and Student Grievance Procedures. Copies of the policy documents referenced above can also be found in the online version of the University Catalog or on the Judicial Affairs Office web site at http://www.calstatela.edu/univ/stuaffrs/jao/.

The Judicial Affairs Officer (JAO), also located in SA 108, can assist students who have questions or wish to report student misconduct. The JAO is directly responsible for investigating all reports of violations of the Standards for Student Conduct (Article 1.1, Title V, of the California Code of Regulations, Section 41301) and administering disciplinary action as outlined in the CSU Executive Order 970-Student Conduct Procedures (E.O. 970). All violations of the Standards including rape, acquaintance rape, or other forcible or non-forcible sex offenses are subject to sanctions, including but not limited to disciplinary probation, suspension, and expulsion from the University. Copies of these procedures are also available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and on the Judicial Affairs Office web site.

Many offenses listed in the CA Penal Code, such as rape, theft, and assault, should be reported to University Police to determine if the filing of a criminal complaint is warranted. However, the JAO can also investigate these offenses on an administrative level on behalf of the University community. In cases of alleged sexual assault, as well as for other violations of the Standards, the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have an advisor present during campus disciplinary proceedings and shall be informed of the outcome of the proceeding, including any penalty to be imposed. In cases involving a “crime of violence” the university may notify the alleged victim(s) of the final results of a hearing whether or not the charges are sustained. (34 C.F.R. & 99.31 et seq.) Where the charge relates to a sexual assault the university must notify the alleged victim of the outcome of the proceeding against the student charged (20 U.S.C. & 1092). The information is only given to the victim(s) and includes only the name of the accused student, any violation alleged committed, and any sanction(s) imposed on that student (20 U.S. C. & 1232g).

For more information on any of these subjects, please feel free to visit the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs in SA 108 or schedule an appointment by calling (323) 343-3100.
Through its programs, facilities, operations and conferencing, Housing Services is committed to maintaining a clean and safe residential community that supports the mission of the University. As a residential community, the Housing Complex is operational year round, thereby employing emergency and safety precautions similar to other residential communities. In an effort to be proactive in addressing emergency and safety concerns, Housing Services provides staffing, including office staff, two Resident Directors and sixteen Resident Assistants, and develops educational programs.

A Resident Assistant (R.A.) is on call after normal business hours to assist residents facing any emergency or safety situation. A member of the Housing Services Emergency Duty team provides back up as needed to R.A.s. The R.A. staff also develops Safety programs in collaboration with the University Health Center and University Police to provide information to residents about health and safety concerns. Furthermore, the Department of Public Safety’s University Police and Eagle Patrol conduct patrol checks of the Housing Services Complex as part of their normal routine.

Residents are provided with copies of Housing Services policies and community guidelines. Violations of any policy or guideline can subject residents to disciplinary action. Policies on the possession of alcohol, dangerous weapons and drugs are in compliance with all state and federal regulations. In the event that a resident is involved in a sexual assault (alleged or proven) or experiences any other emergency, the Housing Services staff will provide assistance in relocating that student on a temporary or permanent basis, if so requested by the victim, and if such changes are reasonably available.

If you have any questions about Housing Services and campus living, please feel free to call the office at (323) 343-4800.

Crime Reporting: The University encourages the accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to the University Police and other appropriate law enforcement agencies.

Crime Statistics: Statistics are compiled in accordance with the Uniform Crime Reporting System of the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Statistics for the annual safety report are provided to the University Police from the Office of Student Affairs, Housing Services, Student Health Center, and neighboring law enforcement agencies. To comply with the act, we collect crime statistics from local police agencies, by providing the addresses of areas and locations that are contiguous, affiliated with, or adjacent to the property of CSULA. The monitoring and recording of criminal activity in which students engage in at off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by Cal State L.A. is conducted in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies.

Outside Agency Assistance: In cases involving both on-campus and off-campus jurisdictions, or when the resources of another agency can be used to facilitate the resolution of an investigation, the Department of Public Safety cooperates fully with state and local law enforcement agencies.

Daily Logs: The Department of Public Safety maintains a daily log of all department activity. The log is available for viewing at the station upon request.

Lighting and Emergency Telephone Surveys are conducted monthly by The Department of Public Safety to ensure that equipment is in working order. If equipment is found to be non-operational, a repair request is given to the responsible campus department. The University makes every effort to promote safety. Particular attention is paid to the design of landscaping, groundskeeping and exterior lighting. The Facilities Management Department and the Environmental Health and Safety Department also conduct regular safety inspections.

Building Security Checks are conducted during the evening hours by the Eagle Patrol. The campus buildings are secured starting at 10:00 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, and 5:00 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. Buildings are closed on Sundays except where access authorization has been established.

Distribution of Clery Information: The Clery brochure “Partners in Public Safety” is distributed in a variety of ways. Information about the Clery brochures was sent as part of the summer quarter registration information to more than 26,799 continuing students. Our Human Resources Management office and Registrar’s office include a Clery Postcard with prospective employee and student application materials. The Clery brochure is available at a number of locations throughout campus and electronically on the web at www.calstatela.edu/univ/police/brochure/index.htm.

Under the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crimes Statistics Act, institutions of higher education are required to disclose information to prospective and current students about institution graduation rates for first-time freshmen. The California State University draws its first-time freshmen from the top one-third of California’s high school graduates. The rate of graduation will vary depending upon the needs of the individual students to balance work, school and family priorities. Information specific to California State University, Los Angeles graduation rates on the next page. Additional information regarding graduation rates of first-time freshmen is available in the Registrar’s Office.
