

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Los Angeles

and

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles

Official names of both universities

Title with Formulae, symbols, superscripts, Greek letters, acronyms, and abbreviated forms in general are to be spelled out

Sex differences and gendered behaviors:

An analysis of school-age children and adolescents

with high-functioning autism.

Only use special characters allowed by UCLA. Italics are acceptable.

1" margins on each side

A dissertation submitted in partial satisfaction of the requirements for the degree Doctor of Philosophy

in Special Education

by

Official name registered with UCLA

Michelle Carol Dean

2013

Year you file

Leave page blank if no copyright filed.

Your name

Michelle Carol Dean

© Copyright by

Copyright notice

2013

Year you file

All capital letters

ABSTRACT OF THE DISSERTATION

Sex Differences and gender stereotypes:

An analysis of school-age children and adolescents

with high-functioning autism

Be consistent on each page with title, name, year, professors' names

by

Michelle Carol Dean

Doctor of Philosophy in Special Education

California State University, Los Angeles, and University of California, Los Angeles, 2013

Professor Connie Kasari, Chair

Include (co)chair(s) here and always call chair "Professor" regardless of the individual's usual title

(The student begins typing the abstract here, double-spaced, half-inch first-line indent.)

UCLA recommends limiting the abstract to 350 words for doctoral dissertation

Continue roman numeral numbering after abstract

ii

0.75" from bottom of page

The dissertation of Michelle Carol Dean is approved.

Do not use titles or degree designations (e.g. Professor, MD, etc.)

Sandra Graham
Sheryl Kataoka
Lois Weinberg
Jennifer Symon

Connie Kasari, Committee Chair

List committee (co)chair(s) last

California State University, Los Angeles

University of California, Los Angeles

2013

List both universities

Continue roman numeral numbering after abstract

iii

0.75" from bottom of page

