

On-Campus Employment Verification

To: Prospective CSULA Employer
From: International Office

In accordance with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations (8 CFR 214.2(f)(9)(i)), international students are authorized to be employed on campus for up to 20 hours during the academic term, and over 20 hours during term breaks. By completing and signing this form, you are certifying you are offering the below-named student on-campus employment. Authorization for on-campus employment may be authorized by International Office if it is determined that the international student is enrolled as a full time student and has not violated his/her non-immigrant status.
