4.0 Report from Executive Committee

4.1 R. Garcia reported:

1. The Executive Committee is reviewing how to present the Academic Calendar to the Senate so that a genuine debate on the issues actually occurs.

2. The campus has been invited to have one of its faculty members give a presentation on “Quality Education through Diversity” at the CSU Various faculty and their areas of expertise are being discussed. A selection will be made next week.

3. The job description for the Director of the Center for Effective Teaching and Learning is being reviewed. The Executive Committee wants this directorship to be a faculty position, preferentially filled by a CSULA faculty member.

4. The charge and membership of the Academic Information Resources Committee of the Academic Senate is being discussed to see if they need to be altered.

5. Legal Counsel indicates that the current policy on the “Regulations for Continuance in Employment Beyond Age 70 for Tenured Faculty Members” is not in compliance with age discrimination laws. The Faculty Policy Committee of the Academic Senate has been given the charge to review this policy and to recommend the appropriate policy change.
