   R. Ledesma shared some questions the Executive Committee had regarding the following items:
      An email was sent to employers informing them of additional work-study funds identified and employers were asked to re-hire work-study students at the same rate of pay. Not everyone received the email. How can the Executive Committee get a copy of the email? A. Ross responded and indicated a copy of that email can be obtained by contacting the director of financial aid, Tamie Nguyen.

      Another question was raised regarding the change in leadership in Admissions. A. Ross responded he is acting interim director pending President Rosser’s approval on the proposed re-organization.
The Executive Committee also had questions with the new reinstatement process. How and when were students notified? How will this become a permanent policy? The policy is not clear on how to reapply. Would students lose their continuing student status? A. Ross suggested A. Gonzalez, Dean of Undergraduate Studies, be invited as a time-certain to address disqualifications/reinstatements.
