STUDY HALL RULES

The purpose of Study Hall sessions are to complete homework assignments, develop study skills, to get assistance from teachers and tutors, and most importantly to increase overall G.P.A. to a 3.0 or above for the semester.

1. ATTENDANCE:

   A. It is mandatory for all students to attend the after-school Study Hall. Students wanting to be excused must submit an excuse form to their Academic Advisors. At any time the Advisor can bring the student back to study hall depending on the student’s 5-week grade reports for the current semester.

   B. Upward Bound will consider excusing students from attending Study hall if the student receives a 3.0 academic GPA, in the first 5-week grade report and maintains it each grading period. The students must also agree to meet with the U.B. Advisor at least once a week. Student must submit an excuse form to their academic advisor.

   In addition to the GPA requirement, at least one of the following must also apply in order to be excused:

   1) The student is involved in extra-curricular activities after school
   2) The student is enrolled in after school classes
   3) The student has a minimum day schedule
   4) The student is attending classes at a community college

   C. Students are expected to arrive on time and be prepared to study and work on homework. Socializing is not allowed.

   D. If you are going to be absent from Study Hall call the Upward Bound office prior to the absence. 323-343-3238.

   E. ALL tardies and absences will be reported to the parents by the Academic Advisors on a daily basis.

   F. Excessive Tardies and Absences will jeopardize your participation in the Upward Bound Program.

2) CONDUCT:

   A. No electronic devices are allowed.

   B. No profanity or vulgarities will be tolerated while in Upward Bound.

   C. No socializing allowed.

   D. Verbal or Physical fighting is in violation of the spirit of Upward Bound. Students involved in a fight will be terminated from the program.
