WHAT IS A DEDUCTIBLE?

- ▶ Lowers the cost of your premium.
- ▶ Lower the deductible, the higher the premium.

RENTERS INSURANCE

- ▶ Affordable protection
- ▶ Protects your personal belongings
- ▶ Liability coverage
- ▶ Covers your belongings when you travel
- ▶ Required by your landlord
- ▶ May cover additional living expenses

HOMEOWNERS INSURANCE

- ▶ Protect your investment
 - ▶ Dwelling – the structure
 - ▶ Floods/Earthquakes
 - ▶ Personal Property - Safeguard your valuable items
- ▶ Liability coverage
 - ▶ Accidents
 - ▶ Trees
 - ▶ Slip and Falls
 - ▶ Dog Bites
 - ▶ Workers in your home
- ▶ Additional Living Expenses

LIFE INSURANCE

- ▶ Term Life
- ▶ Permanent Life – the most common of these are:
 - ▶ Whole Life: accumulates a cash value
 - ▶ Universal Life: Could offer flexible premiums adjusted over time.

Differences:

Term Life is often less expensive and for a set time frame vs. Permanent life is in effect as long as the premium is paid.

REMEMBER THESE 3 THINGS....

Re-evaluate needs every year to ensure you are adequately protected (limits, types)

Be mindful of who operates your vehicle (owner liability)

Read your insurance contracts so you know what is covered. (out of country, intentional acts)

As your assets increase so too does your potential financial exposure
