Dear Patricia Ramirez-Ulloa,

Congratulations! Your program has achieved a new, five-year term of NAEYC Accreditation by successfully completing the renewal process. The administration, teaching staff, and families of Anna Bing Arnold Children's Center are all to be congratulated for continuing to uphold the mark of quality represented by the NAEYC Accreditation system. On behalf of NAEYC, and specifically the NAEYC Academy for Early Childhood Program Accreditation, I commend your program's outstanding efforts in renewing NAEYC Accreditation.

This letter includes information about your program's new term of NAEYC Accreditation as well as information about publicizing your accredited status. Attached to this letter you will find the Accreditation Decision Report that includes a summary of scores for each of the ten NAEYC Early Childhood Program Standards and suggestions for ongoing improvement by topic area based on the data collected during the site visit for use in your annual report.

TERM OF NAEYC ACCREDITATION

Your new term of NAEYC Accreditation will begin on October 14, 2014 and is valid until February 01, 2020.

To maintain NAEYC Accreditation, your program is required to maintain compliance with the NAEYC Early Childhood Program Standards and Accreditation Criteria. Additionally all NAEYC Accredited programs are:

- Required to file an Annual Report and applicable fees on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th anniversary of the above Accreditation date;
- Required to report any potential required criteria violations within 72 hours of the incident or event;
- Required to report program altering changes to the NAEYC Academy within 30 days of the change;
- Eligible to be randomly selected for an unannounced site visit;
- Required to respond to formal complaints and adhere to NAEYC's Complaint Policies and Procedures; and
- Required to agree to additional verification upon request.

Please visit our website at <http://www.naeyc.org/academy> and your program record at <http://program.naeyc.org> for complete information and details on new policies, procedures and any announcements related to your NAEYC Accreditation.

NAEYC Accreditation: The Mark of Quality

COMMENDATIONS

1. Relationships

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for promoting positive relationships among all children and adults to encourage each child's sense of individual worth and belonging as part of a community and to foster each child's ability to contribute as a responsible community member.

3. Teaching

The Academy commends your program for using developmentally, culturally and linguistically appropriate and effective teaching approaches that enhance each child's learning and development in the context of the program's curriculum goals.

4. Assessment

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for using ongoing, systematic, formal and informal assessment approaches to provide information on children's learning and development. These assessments occur within the context of reciprocal communications with families and with sensitivity to the cultural contexts in which children develop. Assessment results are used to benefit children by informing sound decisions about children, teaching, and program improvement.

6. Teachers

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for employing and supporting a teaching staff that has the educational qualifications, knowledge, and professional commitment necessary to promote children's learning and development and to support families' diverse needs and interests.

7. Families

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for the high level of compliance with this component. Recognizing the importance of a reciprocal relationship between families and programs is essential to ensure that programs are meeting the needs of the children and families that the program serves.

8. Community Relationships

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for effectively establishing and maintaining reciprocal relationships with agencies and institutions that can support it in achieving its goals for the curriculum, health promotion, children's transitions, inclusion, and diversity.

10. Leadership and Management

The NAEYC Academy commends your program for administering a program efficiently and effectively, ensuring that all involved persons, staff, children, and families are included. The way in which a program is administered will affect all the interactions within the program.
