7. Early Registration

C. Cobb, University Registrar provided the committee with options on "metered" registration and discussed them and their effect on early registration. He further explained that fall registration would be moved up to allow freshman to register during Orientation. The proposed calendar and two options for metering registration were distributed and discussed.

It was m/s/p to recommend the registrar use the metered registration option with one-hour time blocks which includes Day 1 registration for the three mandated groups. It was further recommended that student assignment to one-hour time blocks be done by last name, with rotation through the blocks in subsequent terms. It was further noted that Athletes be moved from the priority compliance group to the priority participation group.

8. Criteria for reviewing requests for Fall 2015 for early registration

The committee agreed to discuss this at the next meeting due to the new metered registration schedule discussed today.

9. Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities

The statement of student rights and responsibilities and supporting documentation were distributed. The committee members were asked to review all three documents and to be ready to discuss at our next meeting.
