

- West Covina
- 8. Route 66 closed in Glendora while police investigate crash that injured 2-year-old
- 9. Federal indictment, raids target Azusa 13
- 10. Valley high schools celebrate graduation

More News

- Four times as many public employees receive $100,000 a year pensions compared to 2005
- Azusa's police chief hopes years-long investigation into Azusa 13 gives solace to community
- Redistricting proposal could change the elected face of the San Gabriel Valley in Congress
- Frank Girardot: Weiner deservedly the butt of jokes
- At Pasadena Convention Center, Wells Fargo helps distressed homeowners
- Taylor Swift proves to be a fan favorite at the CMT Music Awards
- Young man whose life savings were stolen may press case in court
- Dads get in on kindergarten project at Covina elementary school
- Photo gallery: More than 50 alleged Azusa 13 gang members indicted
- Valley high schools celebrate graduation

- June 14 to July 8, 10 to 11 a.m., Hollingworth Elementary School, 3003 E. Hollingworth St., West Covina
  - June 13 to July 15, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., Santana Alternative Education Center, 1006 S. Otterbein Ave., Rowland Heights
  - June 14 to July 8, 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., Yorbita Elementary School, 520 S. Vidalia Ave., La Puente.
- All sites will be closed July 4.

For more information, call Food Services Department Director Janet Wolf at 626-854-8314.

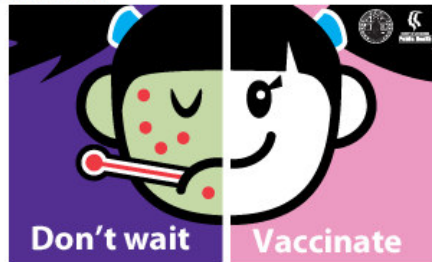

LOS ANGELES

Walnut teen to use grant to attend MIT

Walnut resident and Cal State Los Angeles student David T. Wang is one of only 57 students nationwide to be selected for the prestigious Phi Kappa Phi Graduate Fellowship for the 2011-12 academic year.

Wang - who will complete his bachelor's degree in biochemistry this spring at 19 years old - will use the $5,000 grant to pursue a Ph.D. through the Massachusetts Institute of Technology/Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution Joint Program this fall.

Advertisement

vaccinateLA.com
(or call 211)
This publication was supported by Grant/Cooperative Agreement Number 1H4751p000350-01 from CDC. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of CDC.

Wang took advantage of Cal State's Early Entrance Program to start college at age 15. The program admits gifted youngsters directly into college, providing the early entrants with monitored evaluation, regular counseling sessions, and the opportunity to study with like-minded peers.

ROSEMEAD

Edison announces $1.25 million scholarship fund

Edison International has pledged $1.25 million to fund scholarships for 125 high school seniors selected as "Edison Scholars" in the company's annual scholarship program.

The 125 scholarships reflect the company's 125th anniversary this year.

"These students are among the best and brightest students in the country, and we are proud to support them as they embark on their future," said Theodore F. Craver Jr., chairman and chief executive officer of