

You are invited to a book signing with
Dr. Rona M. Fields, author of *Against Violence Against Women: The Case for Gender as a Protected Class

Thursday, October 30
3:15-4:10 p.m.
King Hall C 4073

Dr. Fields has a distinguished career as a Clinical and Forensic Psychologist who has published eight books on trauma, PTSD, and the psychological effects of living in contexts of societal violence. In this book she examines cases of gender-based violence in six different global regions and the institutionalization of femicide. She also identifies ways to protect human rights and to prevent gender-based violence using international governance processes.

Copies of the book will be available for 34$ plus tax.

Sponsored by Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

