California State University, Los Angeles, is ranked number one in the nation based on the upward mobility of its students. Founded in 1947, Cal State LA is the premier public comprehensive university in the heart of Los Angeles and is dedicated to the mission of engagement, service, and the public good. The University serves more than 27,000 students and more than 247,000 alumni, who are as diverse as the region we serve. Led by an award-winning faculty, the University offers nationally recognized programs in science, the arts, business, criminal justice, engineering, nursing education, and the humanities. At Cal State LA, we are pushing boundaries and creating new opportunities for discovery and innovation.

The Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery, is located in the Fine Arts Building at California State University, Los Angeles. The city of Los Angeles is one of the greatest art capitals of the world. Art expresses, educates and influences the concepts that define history, culture, and society. The gallery is to serve the needs of an urban and diverse university community through art, but also provides a forum for investigating a wide range of visual cultures through art and art related events. The Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery offers a vibrant program that features established and budding artists, as well as acclaimed artists and scholars from around the world. It also presents cultural and educational exhibits of all ages as well as Cal State LA faculty, graduates and undergraduate students year-round. All exhibitions and events are open to the public.

Director of the Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery, Dr. Mika Cho (Professor of Art) and the gallery student staff welcome and cordially invite all of you to its exhibitions and events.
