The Honors College and the College of Business and Economics are pleased to announce that we will be accepting students into the inaugural Business Honors Program (BHP) at California State University Los Angeles. The BHP is a selective program for students who have demonstrated the highest potential as high school and community college scholars.

Qualified high school students generally have attained a cumulative GPA of 3.7 or higher and a combined minimum score of 1100 on the Critical Reading and Math sections of the SAT, or a minimum composite ACT score of 26.

Qualified transfer students generally have attained a minimum GPA of 3.7 or higher in their college coursework and in all lower division GE requirements, which must be completed prior to admission to the Honors College.

The benefits of joining the Honors College include:
- Dedicated scholarships
- Priority registration
- Recognition at graduation
- Specialized advisement with an emphasis on career development and graduate school
- Small seminar-style classes and a cohorted Honors learning community
- Access to undergraduate research experiences

In addition to these benefits, BHP students majoring in accounting, management, marketing, economics, finance and law, and information systems are guaranteed the following:
- Access to honors internships connected with their major field of study
- Guaranteed space in cohorted Business Honors core classes
- Access to faculty mentor in their major
- Membership in the Honors Business Society
- Special consideration for scholarships in the College of Business and Economics

We also offer Honors College Scholarships, which start at $2000 per year for up to two years for transfer students, and for up to four years for university freshmen. You will be considered for these scholarships when you submit your Honors College application. No separate scholarship application is required.
