2010-2011 Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Instructions

SUBMISSIONS DEADLINES

Appeals for 1 Quarter Funding Only	Must be submitted 2-weeks before end of quarter.
Appeals for 2-qtrs or Academic Year	Must be submitted 2-weeks before end of your final quarter or Spring 2011

Federal and State regulations governing student financial aid require aid recipients maintain standards of reasonable academic progress towards completion of their degree or certificate. Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) is monitored annually.

The Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is comprised of two Standards:

- Qualitative Standard (GPA)
- Quantitative Standard: (1) Rate of completion and (2) Maximum Unit Standard (Excessive units)

Special Note: Appeal review may take a minimum of 4-6 weeks (or longer). You will be notified by mail of our decision. If you have registered for classes or intend to register for classes, you are responsible for paying your registration fees by the payment deadline (as specified in the Schedule of Classes) in order to register for classes or to avoid being dropped from your classes.

Instructions

STEP 1: Complete the Appeal Form below, selecting the reason(s) for your appeal.

- Grade Point Average: Your GPA is less than required (2.0 Undergraduate, 2.5 Post-baccalaureate, 3.0 Graduate).
- Rate of Completion: Your rate of completion < less than 50% of units attempted.

Rate of Completion	Affects on aid eligibility / Action Needed
< 50%	Aid eligibility suspended. Student may appeal.
50% - 74.99%	Financial Aid Probation. Eligible for funding – No Action Needed.
75%	Meeting SAP. No Action Needed.

- Maximum Unit Standard (Excessive Units): You have exceeded the maximum number of units for your program (271 units Undergraduate, 112 units Graduate/Masters).

STEP 2: Submit Statement of Explanation

Attach a letter which clearly explains: 1) The circumstances that prevented you from meeting the satisfactory academic progress standards; 2) What your responsibility for these events has been; 3) How your circumstances have changed so your failure of the situation will not occur again; and 4) the steps you have taken to ensure you will make Satisfactory Academic Progress in the future. Be sure to specify relevant dates.

STEP 3: Attach Supporting Documentation

- SAP Appeals for GPA deficiencies must include:
 - Memo from academic advisor that outlines how you will improve your CSULA GPA.
 - A completed Academic Plan Form listing the recommended courses you have been advised to enroll in by your academic advisor. The form must have the Department's stamp or seal. Form available on the FA web site under Online Forms.
- SAP Appeals for Excessive Units must include:
 - A copy of your Official Program signed by the Department Chair or designee.
 - A completed Academic Plan Form which lists "all" remaining coursework required to complete your current degree and your "expected term of graduation." The form must have the Department's stamp or seal. Form available on the FA web site under Online Forms.
- For all appeals, depending upon your circumstances and nature of appeal, you may attach other supporting documents (if appropriate) that further document your situation (i.e., letter from your doctor, copy of a death certificate, etc).
