

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST / CSU TRUSTEES' AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT

The William Randolph Hearst Foundation established an endowed scholarship fund in 1984 to honor William Randolph Hearst, founder of the Hearst newspaper chain. In 1999, the William Randolph Hearst Foundation partnered with the CSU Board of Trustees to create the William Randolph Hearst/CSU Trustees' Award for Outstanding Achievement. Contributions from CSU Trustees and private donors supplement the endowment. The awards recognize students who have demonstrated financial need, experienced personal hardships and have attributes of merit including superior academic performance, exemplary community service, and significant personal achievements.

One (1) scholarship in the amount of $6,000 will be awarded to the highest ranked student in the review process, and an additional eighteen (18) scholarships will be awarded in the amount of $3,000 for the 2006 - 2007 academic year using the stated criterion:

- Applicants must demonstrate superior academic performance with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and be in academic good standing.
- Applicants must demonstrate financial need as determined by the campus Financial Aid Office.
- Applicants must be currently enrolled as a full-time equivalent undergraduate or graduate student in any major field at a CSU campus and must remain a CSU full-time equivalent student during the 2006 - 2007 academic year.

Applications are available through the campus Financial Aid Office.

Application Deadline: Friday, April 14, 2006.

Financial Aid Offices of each campus will review applications to ensure that they meet all stated requirements and will forward one nomination to the CSU Foundation. Please include:

- The University will submit a nomination cover letter from the campus President on student's behalf upon initial selection process is completed.
- A one-paragraph biography (Financial Aid Office will request approval from the campus public affairs department).
- The Applicant Information Form.
- A current official college transcript including all undergraduate and graduate coursework completed.
- A brief statement describing personal achievements, goals and community service, which should reflect a commitment to education and to the community.
- Two letters of reference from individuals such as teachers/professors, counselors, or community leaders who can attest to the candidate's meritorious performance and personal strengths and assess the candidate's potential for success. One of the letters of reference must be from an academic instructor.
- A speech, approximately three minutes in length, which describes how the student has overcome adversity and the student's goals and aspirations for the future - particularly how they may hope to impact the lives of others. The speech should be submitted in written and video format. One student will be selected among the recipients to speak on behalf of all awardees and present their speech at the September 19, 2006, Board of Trustees meeting.
- All recipients of the Hearst Trustees' Scholarship will be invited to attend the awards presentation at the September 19, 2006, Board of Trustees meeting.

The scholarship review committee will select recipients who best demonstrate need and merit. The final names of the recipients will be forwarded to the campuses in June. Recipients of the scholarship awards will be announced during the September meeting of the CSU Board of Trustees.
