

2009-2010 $700 IPS Study Abroad Travel Grant

Eligibility: This scholarship is designated for CSULA students admitted to the International Programs (IP) www.calstate.edu/ip for the 2009-2010 academic year. Financial need, aptness of goals as related to this study abroad program, as well as academic performance will be considered. * IP applicants who have not yet received confirmation of their acceptance should also apply. Approval of the IPS Travel Grant is contingent upon acceptance in the program.

How to Apply:

1. Apply to participate in the International Programs. See www.calstate.edu/ip for more information.
2. Complete the 2009-2010 CSULA General Scholarship Application found on the Financial Aid website under forms <http://www.calstatela.edu/univ/finaid/forms.htm>. On item #15 list, “International Programs & Services Travel Grant” in order to be considered.
3. Include: unofficial transcripts and type-written essay (see below). There is no need to submit an additional letter of recommendation since the IP application already requires two faculty recommendations. Two copies of the application and supporting materials must be submitted to the Center for Financial Aid.
4. Essay: Describe in 300-500 words how your participation in International Programs will contribute to your career and academic goals. Please indicate the personal significance of receiving this scholarship, your financial need in the coming year, as well as any other relevant factors that you believe that the committee should take into consideration. Pay special attention to grammar, spelling and tone.
5. Deadline May 1st, 2009. Submit all documentation to the Center for Financial Aid.
