Spring 2004

Dear Cal State L.A. Student Leader,

Are you ready for the ultimate leadership experience? Do you want to take part in a FUN, INTERACTIVE, and EXCITING retreat that will help you to sharpen those leadership skills? The Center for Student Development and Programs at California State University, Los Angeles is inviting student leaders to apply for a unique three-day leadership experience from Friday, July 9 through Sunday, July 11. Taking place among the beautiful mountain scenery at the Wrightwood Camp and Conference Center, the Leader Summit is a leadership weekend experience aimed at building community among student leaders at Cal State L.A. and empowering those who participate to become agents of change in our communities.

The Leader Summit application and payment must be received by June 11, 2004 although applicants are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. Registration is based on application and we are limited to 50 participants. Please note that this weekend summit is substance free and participants will not be allowed to bring or drink any alcoholic beverages. The registration fee is $10 per student and covers:

- 2 Nights of Lodging,
- Transportation and Materials,
- 6 Meals and Snacks,
- Experiential Leadership Training

If you are interested in participating in the Leader Summit, please complete the attached application and return it to the Center for Student Development and Programs, University-Student Union, Room 204 no later than Friday, June 11 at 6pm. You may also fax in the application at: 323.343.5728 (if you fax, please be sure to include both sides of the application.)

If you have any questions about the Leader Summit, please feel free to call the Center at 323.343.5110.

Best regards,

Faith Kazmi
Interim Assistant Director for Student Development
