Peer Facilitator Application

September 21, 2006

Dear Cal State L.A. Student Leader,

Congratulations on taking the first step in becoming a Leader Project Peer Facilitator! The Leader Project is an interactive, hands-on experience designed to provide emerging leaders at Cal State L.A. with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills. This exciting program will take place in the Winter Quarter 2007, on Thursdays beginning January 4, 2007 from 1:30pm-3:30pm.

As a Peer Facilitator for the program, you will have the opportunity to lead the dynamic group of students through thought-provoking discussions, cooperative activities, and out of the classroom projects. This is a great opportunity to gain advanced leadership experience, build your resume, and make new friends. No experience with Leader Project is necessary as we welcome applicants who have not completed the Leader Project course as a participant. Peer Facilitators will be required to attend all class sessions and weekly Peer Facilitator planning meetings. In addition, Peer Facilitators will attend two training sessions taking place on:

Date:	Time:	Location:
Friday, November 3	10am-1pm	Soriano Boardroom
Friday, November 17	10am-1pm	Soriano Boardroom

Please complete the attached application and return it to the Center for Student Development and Programs, King Hall D148 no later than Friday, October 20 at 6pm. The Peer Facilitator selection process also has an interview component. Please provide your times of availability for an interview for the week of October 23rd. You may also fax this completed application along with your available interview times to: (323) 343-5101. If you have any questions about the Leader Project, please call the Center at (323) 343-5110.

Thank you for your interest in the Leader Project Peer Facilitator position and I look forward to meeting you soon.

Best regards,

Frangelo Ayran
Student Development Coordinator

Alezandra Brady-Villagran
Leadership Development Assistant
