

Withdrawal of Recognition and Sanctioning Student Organizations

If University procedures are violated, student organization sanctions include but are not limited to: written warning; suspension of the organization recognition; and withdrawal of organization recognition. Individuals may also be sanctioned by the University for their role in violating policy.

Recognition will be withdrawn if a student organization fails to update the Student Organization Officer Information Form prior to two weeks after the Student Organization Meeting held in the fall and spring quarters. In addition, for Greek organizations, recognition will be withdrawn if the "Consent to Disclose Student Academic Records" forms and updated rosters are not completed within the specified time period; a group has consistent neighborhood relations violations; or is suspended by the international or national headquarters.
