Free income tax filing assistance available at Cal State LA for qualified individuals

The Cal State LA Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program is offering free income tax preparation services to qualified Alhambra residents on Saturdays through April 14.

The program is available to those who generally earn $54,000 or less, people with disabilities, the elderly, and limited English-speaking taxpayers who need assistance in preparing and filing their own tax returns. In addition, there will be free services on financial literacy and asset building, as well as microcredit and business planning.

The Cal State LA VITA site is located at the University's Salazar Hall building, third floor, room C-343, and will be open from 8 a.m. to noon Saturdays. Appointments are not necessary.

Public parking is available in Structures A and B. Permits may be purchased from dispensers located in the structures. For a campus map and directions, visit <http://www.calstatela.edu/univ/maps/index.php>.

Since 1998, the Internal Revenue Service and Cal State LA faculty have trained Cal State LA accounting students to provide income tax preparation services. Cal State LA VITA partners include the California State Board of Equalization, State Farm, and H&R Block.

For more details on VITA services offered at Cal State LA, phone 213-278-2070. For the checklist on what to bring, visit <https://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Checklist-for-Free-Tax-Return-Preparation>.
