SUBJECT: Chapter IV of the Faculty Handbook: Recognition of Students at the University Honors Convocation

The Student Policy Committee was charged with reviewing the existing Recognition of Students at the University Honors Convocation by Senate Executive Committee because the policy no longer reflected current practices. Specifically, that there is no longer a University Honors Convocation and that Honors Convocation activities are now planned by several colleges/departments/divisions/schools.

The Committee undertook a review of existing practices within the various colleges, reviewed current policies at other Cal States, and met with the former Chair of the University Honors and Commencement Committee. After significant fact-finding, the Student Policy Committee recommends that the policy be changed to allow for Honors Convocation to be held by the appropriate colleges/departments/divisions/schools.

The proposed modifications:

- Line 1 Updated the policy name to reflect the recommended changes and current practices.
- Lines 6-10 Added language that acknowledged colleges may hold honors convocation, along with departments/divisions/schools at the discretion of the college.
- Line 11 Replaced students with undergraduate to make the policy section clearer.
- Line 25 Added “Receiving Special Honor” to reflect changes made to the section.
- Lines 27-28 Added language that allows colleges/departments/divisions/schools to recognize GPA achievements by Graduate Students.
- Lines 28-31 Removed references to the University Honors Convocation and references to additional ceremonies.
