EXCUSED ABSENCE

Chair DeShazo convened the meeting at 1:50 p.m.

Senator Phun read the Tongva land acknowledgement.

Chair DeShazo invited the body to take a moment of silence. This pause is to acknowledge the very real harms being experienced both in our campus community and the broader community: the fear and trauma caused by ICE actions, the ongoing harm on trans and gender-diverse people, and the loss of critical public funding that supports our most vulnerable students, families, and communities. Her ask to the body was that they hold space for those who are hurting, for those living with trauma and uncertainty, for those who have lost their lives or have disappeared, and for the responsibility we are share an academic community committed to dignity, equity, and care – and that this pause ground us in empathy and our shared commitment to one another.

1. 1.1 Chair DeShazo announced: The President's Distinguished Professor lecture presented by Dr. David Blekhman will be on Tuesday, February 3 in the GE Ballrooms. The title of his lecture is "If you build it, they will come". A reception will be held immediately after the lecture.
- 1.2 Chair DeShazo announced: There will be Strategic Planning Session with key groups led by Dr. John Jasinski. Individual registration links for the sessions were emailed separately to the stakeholder groups.
  - February 2, 3:15-4:00pm – Faculty and Department Chairs
  - February 3, 9:00-9:45am – Staff
  - February 3, 10:00-10:45am – Administrators (all MPP ranks)
  - February 3, 11:00-11:45am - Students
- 1.3 Senator Porter announced: Today we are submitting a major infrastructural NIH grant to enhance biomedical research capacity at Cal State LA with enthusiastic institutional support. This proposal was a labor of dedication and collaboration between faculty and administration who in part also serve as PIs on this proposal. Of course we do not know whether it will be awarded, but I wanted to use this time to recognize the support I had received in the preparation of this proposal and thank Provost Lattimer, AVP Faculty Success Brown, AVPR Ye, VP Day, Dean Rodriguez, and especially the Deans Pizarro, Warter-Perez, Reiboldt, and Trzaskoma – they literally worked for hours over the weekend to get these new NIH Biosketches done, as well as the participating faculty. This experience showed that when we, faculty and administrators, align our goals and work together, we are really powerful, and I wanted to encourage us all to work together and find new strengths in each other for a powerful Cal State LA ORSCA internal awards.
- 1.4 Senator Abdullah announced: Announcement 1: People's Budget LA survey is live. The research is being led by Dr. David Turner of UCLA and Dr. Tabatha Jones Jolivet of Azusa Pacific University. Please make your voice heard about how you want your tax dollars spent and encourage students and colleagues to complete the survey at peoplesbudgetla.com/survey
Announcement 2: Congratulations to Professor Aminah Abdul-Jabaar, the new Department Chair of Pan-African Studies, who has taught in the Department for more than 20 years..
- 1.5 Senator Talcott announced: Thank you, Chair DeShazo, for how you opened our senate meeting. My heart is racing because I just learned that 3 more of our community members were kidnapped in Echo Park today. We know that unions have been key institutions for fighting fascism, and we have a union, faculty! We are also in contract bargaining. Your bargaining representatives for this campus are myself, Molly Talcott

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(Sociology) and Dr. Libby Lewis (Pan-African Studies and Sociology). We are available to answer your questions. We need your continued involvement. The recent email by Chancellor Garcia made the union-busting suggestion that it's the union keeping faculty from our 3% stipend (that does not go to salary base or retirement). If you look on cfabargaining.org, where you can see proposals from both sides, you will see that the CSU management isn't offering faculty the stipend until Fall 2026. Lastly, the governor's budget, while still tentative, includes a 7% increase in ongoing base funding to the CSU. We need to continue to be engaged and fight for that increase to remain; thanks to the statewide Academic Senate and CFA for doing the work to reverse the cuts and to increase the base budget of the CSU, and then make sure management funds instruction. We are somewhere around spending 37% on instruction at Cal State LA (give or take a percentage point), and we can advocate for much better.

- 1.6 Chair DeShazo announced: The 5 in 5 Faculty Research Talks is happening on February 3, 12:00-1:00pm, in the University Library Reading Lounge.
