Online via Open University

Mandarin Bilingual Added Authorization Program

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Mandarin Bilingual Added Authorization program is fully synchronous remote via Canvas. The program is open to practicing credentialed teachers with an interest in obtaining the added authorization. The courses are accepted by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC).

Upon completion of the program, teachers will be prepared to develop, implement, and adapt curriculum and instructional strategies to promote student bilingualism, biliteracy, bicognition, and biculturalism in bilingual and dual language settings. Teachers will also be equipped with the sociohistorical, sociocultural, sociopolitical, and sociolinguistic knowledge necessary to advocate for equity-centered bilingual education.

Program Orientation will be held on Thursday, August 15, 2024 5:00-6:00 p.m.

PROGRAM

Students complete 6 units of coursework that include the following courses and must participate in a Zoom meeting a week prior to the program start.

- EDCI 5560: Inquiry into Methods of Teaching Academic Literacy in the Target Language (3 units)

- EDCI 5570: Research and Pedagogy for the Bilingual Learner: Exploring Cultural Impact (3 units)

REQUIREMENTS

- CSET III passing exam score or proof of exam registration within the first five weeks of the program

FULLY REMOTE FALL 2024
AUGUST 20 - DECEMBER 14

EDCI 5560: TBD

EDCI 5570: TBD

PROGRAM COST

Cost Per Unit	Total Program Cost
$320	$1,920

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT
via Open University
July 8, 2024

For information regarding the program and courses, please contact:
Dr. Verónica González, Assistant Professor
Bilingual and Multicultural Education
vgonza150@calstatela.edu

For information regarding registration, please contact:
PaGE Student Services
PaGEStudents@calstatela.edu

(323) 343-4900

COLLEGE OF
PROFESSIONAL & GLOBAL EDUCATION