Topics to be Covered as Required by Commission in Letter Dated July 12, 2019

1. Integrated plan for achieving key initiatives in the student success goal of the strategic plan.
2. Progress toward 2025 goal of increasing graduation rates.
3. Progress in diversifying the faculty and high-level administrators.

Findings of the Committee (Interim Report)/Staff (Progress Report):

Commendations

The panel commends Cal State LA for:

1. Outstanding student advising and engagement initiatives.
2. Strategic and effective approaches to student success initiatives utilizing best practices.
3. Responsiveness of academic affairs to student success and proactive support.
4. Record-breaking fundraising campaign that surpassed its ambitious goals.
5. Significant strides in enhancing diversity among faculty and administrators.

Recommendations

The panel recommends that Cal State LA:

1. Continue to address the recommendations outlined in the July 19, 2019, Commission letter.
2. Develop strategies to hire more Latinx faculty and reduce the gap in representation between Latinx and other UREM faculty, in line with the institution’s goal to reflect the diversity of its student body.
3. Clarify how the infrastructure and initiatives established for GI 2025 will be institutionalized in the absence of future funding.
