

Paige Williams joined the School of Criminal Justice and Criminalistics, California State University, Los Angeles, in March 2017 as the office manager, overseeing administrative tasks and procedures. She has extensive experience in purchasing, planning, coordinating, and contract administration. She plays a vital role in the administration of the daily operations of the school's front office and forensic science academic laboratories. Paige is also the school's liaison with the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department and the Los Angeles Police Department within the Hertzberg-Davis Forensic Science Center.

Previously, she served as the office manager for the California State University, San Bernardino, University Police/Parking and Enforcement Services. Paige holds an AA degree in Business, Humanities, Social and Behavioral Science, and a bachelor's degree in Psychology. She is pursuing a graduate degree in Clinical Psychology with an emphasis in addiction.