

BECOME A TEACHER

Be a life-long learner

Give back to the community

Encourage children to dream

Share your passion for knowledge

Explore your creativity

Challenge yourself and others daily

Inspire generations

Compensation:

You think the teaching profession doesn't pay? The California Department of Education reports the annual salaries can reach anywhere between $45,000 and $89,000+, depending on where you work and your academic/training level.

What is the highest need in education?

STEM Teachers
Bilingual Educators
Special Education Teachers

Other Benefits:

Competitive compensation levels
Generous retirement
Consistent schedule
Summer vacation & holidays off

