Welcome to Spring Semester 2018!

Dean's Message

I hope your winter break was a restful, renewing, and re-energizing time for you. After our winter "time away," we can all return to our work ready to enter into this semester with the energy, passion, and vision that embody the faculty, staff, and students of the CCOE.

Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote, "We must use time creatively, in the knowledge that the time is always ripe to do right." And there is much work to be done in Education here in East Los Angeles and nationwide. Education is a civil right and the cornerstone of a democratic society.

I know that everyone in the CCOE is collectively engaged in this important work. What could be more significant than preparing counselors, educational leaders, and teachers to do the transformative work of preparing children, youth and adults for the future? So as we start this Spring Semester, please remember that your efforts, large and small, contribute to this important goal.

Dean Cheryl Ney

Let us rise to King's challenge to creatively use time for the opportunity to do right. As you read through this bulletin, check out the upcoming CCOE events - like the upcoming Inclusive Schools Leadership Institute, the Mental and Behavioral Health Conference, and the Gear Up 4LA College Experience Day - which demonstrate the creativity in action of the CCOE community.

"The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character - that is the goal of true education."

Are You Planning an Info Session?

It is that time of year when CCOE Divisions heavily promote their programs to potential students and hold informational sessions so that students can learn more about the program and how to apply by the admissions deadlines.

Deana Garay, Recruitment Specialist in the Office of Student Services (OSS), along with the OSS Director, Agustin Cervantes, and Communications Specialist, Dawn Jefferson, are here to support you in these efforts.

We can assist with:

- Creating appropriately branded info session flyers
- Creating program brochures
- Advertising info sessions online & in print
- Sharing info session flyers and program materials at the many recruitment events we attend on and off campus

Uy Takes on Role as CSU Director of Teacher Education

Dr. Fred Uy, who served as the Chair of the CCOE Division of Curriculum and Instruction has been selected to serve as the Director of Teacher Education in the Department of Teacher Education and Public School Programs at the CSU Chancellor's Office. He will begin his new position on February 5, 2018, where he will be responsible for overseeing and increasing the capacity of the department to provide leadership and support to the educator preparation programs on campuses across the CSU.

He will also be co-directing the Center for the Advancement of Instruction in Quantitative Reasoning (CAIQR), in collaboration with the Director of California Academic Partnership Program (CAPP). He will be missed and always appreciated for his dedicated service to educator preparation, the Division of Curriculum and Instruction, and the Charter College of Education.

Dr. Kimberly Persiani, who has served as Associate Chair of C&I, will serve as the new Division Chair. In this new role she brings her experience as well as her skill and ability in addressing the ever changing landscape of educator preparation.

Snow Leads Training in Tanzania

CCOE Professor Dr. Ann Snow, who is also Chair of the Division of Applied and Advanced Studies in Education, spent some of December in 2017 leading a U.S. State Department sponsored program in Tanzania, where she conducted a 2 week training program.

Dr. Richard Chung has been named as a 2018 Outstanding New Educator Prepared Through Alternative Routes to Certification (NAAC New Educator Awards). Each of the three awardees will receive $1,000 and complimentary registration to the conference. These outstanding new educators were all nominated by their preparation programs with supporting recommendations from their principals and supervisors, and were selected by a committee of NAAC members. They will be honored at the Awards Luncheon on Friday, April 6 at the NAAC annual conference. Dr. Chung is in the CCOE's Los Angeles Urban Residency Program (LAUTR). Prior to teaching in Pasadena, he taught at Alhambra High School and Saito High School in downtown Los Angeles.

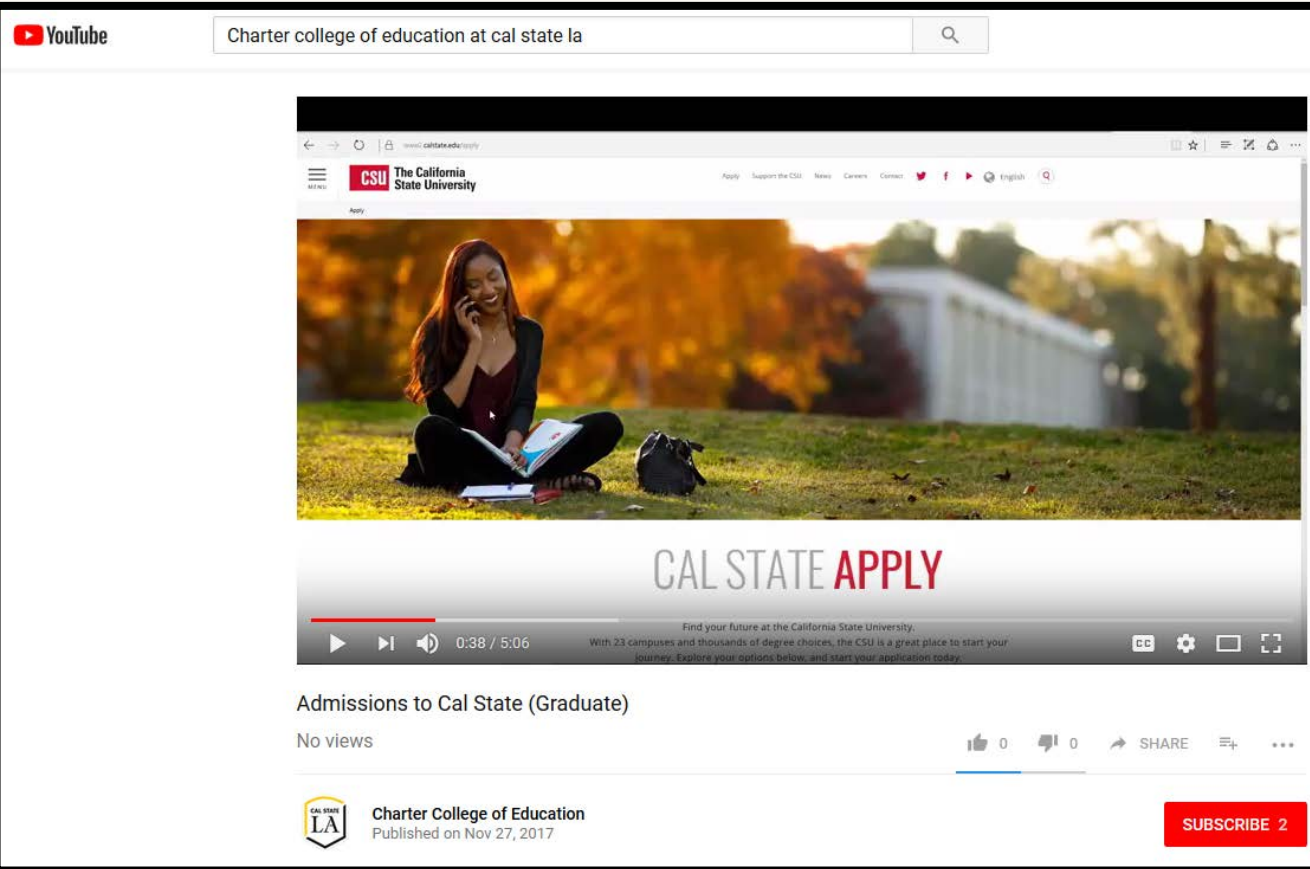

CCOE Alumna, Dr. Marquita Grenot-Scheyer will give the Keynote Address at the AACTE 70th Annual Meeting. Dr. Grenot-Scheyer is Assistant Vice Chancellor, Teacher Education and Public School Programs for the California State University System where she is responsible for leading, coordinating, and expediting system wide efforts to recruit and prepare teachers, counselors, and school leaders.

Dr. Grenot-Scheyer is a proud graduate of California State University, Los Angeles, and in recognition of her career, she was selected as the Distinguished Alumnus, Cal State LA Charter College of Education, in 2008.

Maddox to Serve as Lead Undergraduate Advisor

The Office for Student Services would like to welcome Dr. Richard Maddox to the Charter College of Education in his new position as the Lead Undergraduate Advisor. He has been working with the Rehabilitation Services students since January 3rd, 2018. He will soon engage with Urban Learning students as well.

Dr. Maddox holds a doctorate in Educational Leadership from USC, and his extensive background in the field of education makes him uniquely qualified to support CCOE undergraduate students. He served for twenty-nine years as Director of the Early Entrance Program here on campus.

We are excited to have him with us and would like to welcome him into our team.

Inclusive Schools Leadership Institute

On January 18, 2018, CCOE professors Drs. KiMi Wilson, Albert Jones, and Leila Ricci served with Dr. Sarah Benis Scheier-Dolberg as faculty for the Inclusive Schools Leadership Institute. Dr. Scheier-Dolberg is the Executive Director of the Urban Education Leaders Collaborative (UELC). The event, co-sponsored with the Teachers College at Columbia University, where the UELC is housed, provided 65 area educators with a professional learning experience to deepen inclusive practices in classrooms and support co-teaching.

Student Assistants Join Communications Team

The CCOE Communications Team Welcomes Ana Garcia and Shane Ysais

Ana will be working as a student assistant primarily on events and media projects. Ana is a senior majoring in Sociology with an emphasis on Inequalities and Diversity. Prior to majoring in Sociology, her focus was early childhood education.

Ana is passionate about education that not only appeals to diverse student bodies, but also bridges the cultural and social-emotional gaps that affect academic success. In addition to diverse education, Ana believes that marketing and social media are essential in reframing the way many disenfranchised groups are viewed. These beliefs have led to many passion projects. Most recently, she has been photographing women who fear sexual assault in order to replace the image of victimization with empowerment.

Shane will be working as a student assistant on primarily media and print projects. He is studying in the College of Business and Economics with a major of Computer Information Systems. He loves technology, music, and design finds that being at the CCOE is a fitting (and amazing) place for him to work because the Education field is a very big part of his family.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS Faculty, Students, and Staff

The Educational Legacy of the 1968 East LA Walkouts: Walk-in to Cal State LA – Friday, March 2, 2018 –

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT PROPOSAL: January 28, 2018

On March 1, 1968, hundreds of students began to walk out of high schools on the East Side of Los Angeles in protest of poor educational conditions, exclusionary policies, and discriminatory educational practices. Within weeks, thousands of students across many other LA high schools joined the student protests, which later became known as the East Los Angeles Blowouts/Walk-outs.

The Walk-outs left a valuable educational legacy that continues to benefit all students and their communities in LA. Indeed, given the large population of Latina/o students today, Cal State LA is also a direct beneficiary of the courageous stance taken by the high school students in 1968.

In recognition of the educational legacy created by the 1968 East LA Walkouts, the Office of the Vice Provost for Diversity and Engaged Learning is hosting a free, two-day conference at Cal State LA on Thursday, March 1 and Friday, March 2, 2018. You are cordially invited to attend day-long conference on Thursday, March 1 in the G.E. Ballrooms (for program details, please visit: <http://www.calstatela.edu/academicaffairs/diversity>)

We also invite you to submit a brief proposal for a presentation or workshop on the second day of the conference, Friday, March 2, 2018. On day two, we will host approximately 700 high school students as they Walk-In to Cal State LA from five of the original ELA Walkout legacy high schools (Roosevelt, Belmont, Wilson, Garfield, Lincoln). The students will arrive that Friday morning and receive a warm welcome by President William A. Covino, Provost Lynn Mahoney, faculty, students, and staff. After a morning program and lunch, they will be escorted to one of 20 break-out classrooms where they will attend one of the many presentations led by Cal State LA faculty, staff or students.

All presentations will be held in King Hall classrooms between 12:30 to 1:15 p.m. We especially welcome interactive presentations or workshops that address the educational legacy of the Walk-outs, and strongly encourage joint presentations by faculty and student(s). Below are some guiding themes to consider for your proposal:

1. Transgenerational leadership for educational success
2. Immigration and education
3. Continuities in educational conditions: 1968 to the present
4. Enacting student leadership strategies for educational, social, and political change
5. The relationship between social media and current student social movements
6. Organizing spaces and strategies that honor the fluidity of student identities
7. Disrupting the school-to-prison pipeline
8. Alliances, collaborations, and partnerships for educational improvement

Proposal Submission:

1. By midnight, Sunday, January 28, 2018, please submit a 3 page (maximum) single-space overview of your proposed workshop/presentation that includes Presenter(s) and Title(s), Description of presentation, Goals/Objectives, and Interactive Activities.
2. Submit proposals and inquiries to: Vice Provost for Diversity <viceprovostfordiversity@calstatela.edu>
3. Selected participants will be notified by February 7, 2018.

Honolulu Conference on Education Explores Urban Teaching Residencies

CCOE Professors Dr. Kimberly Persiani, the newly named Chair for the Division of Curriculum and Instruction, and Dr. Leila Ricci, recently attended the 16th Annual Hawaii International Conference on Education. They gave two talks and presented a poster. Their presentations were, "The Implementation of Co-Teaching Models in Elementary and Secondary Classroom," and "Training Wheels for Teaching' and 'Cooking in Your Mother-in-Law's Kitchen': Co-teaching in a Teacher Residency." Their presentation highlighted the challenges of collaboration and co-teaching in urban math, science, and special education residency classrooms.

Inclusive Education Think Tank Embraces MLK Day Purpose

On Saturday, January 13th, CCOE Professors Drs. Mary Falvey, Andrea Zetlin, and Richard Rosenberg, and doctoral student Caitlin Solone participated with a group of amazing advocates including parents, university faculty, district administrators, educators, and many more, who gathered to discuss the importance and next steps for inclusion in our education system.

This Inclusive Education Think Tank embodied the participants' social justice values and correlated with their remembrance of Martin Luther King Jr. who famously said, "The function of education is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. Intelligence plus character - that is the goal of true education."

Thank you to Cal State LA and the Thompson Policy Institute (TPI) for their support.

Do You YouTube?

The CCOE now has a YouTube Channel!

On the new Charter College of Education YouTube Channel you can find videos featuring CCOE programs, events, info session flyers, student testimonials, and very useful tutorials that will walk you through the application process. You might even find a video about our humanoid robot!

Take a look! Subscribe!

Check out the New Orientation & Mobility Program Video

The Orientation & Mobility Program has created a short video that introduces prospective students to what the program has to offer and pathways to becoming a specialist. If you'd like to develop a video for your program, email dawn.Jefferson@calstatela.edu

Support the Charter College of Education

Happy New Year!

One of the best ways to get involved with helping others is to start in your own community. It is with this in mind that we invite you to support the Charter College of Education (CCOE) at Cal State LA.

The CCOE prepares exceptional and caring educators - counselors, teachers, educational leaders - who are dedicated to inclusivity, student success, and the value of all individuals in our communities.

As we move towards the close of 2017, we invite you to include the Charter College of Education in your end of year giving plans. Contributions in any amount are welcome and all donations are 100%-tax deductible.

Give Online - <http://www.calstatela.edu/giving/directingyourgift/charter-college-education>

For more information on ways you can make a contribution to the Charter College of Education, please contact Dean Ney at 323-343-4300 and become a part of the CCOE community!
