

MASTERS IN CHICANA(O) & LATINA(O) STUDIES AT CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

The Masters of Arts degree in CLS is designed for graduate students who wish to pursue advanced study toward the Ph.D. degree; teach in community colleges, secondary, or elementary schools; or work as professionals in non-profit and private agencies or government service.

Why Cal State LA?

- Interdisciplinary Curriculum
- College of Ethnic Studies
- Scholarships and Fellowships available
- NO GREs needed
- High track record of placement in Ph.D. programs across the nation
- Diverse Research Areas:
 - Central American Studies
 - Chicana/Latina Feminism
 - Community Engaged Movement-building Praxis
 - Critical Ethnic Studies
 - Critical Race Theory in Education
 - Cultural Studies
 - Jotería Studies
 - Latinx Indigenous Studies

VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 6 - 7 PM

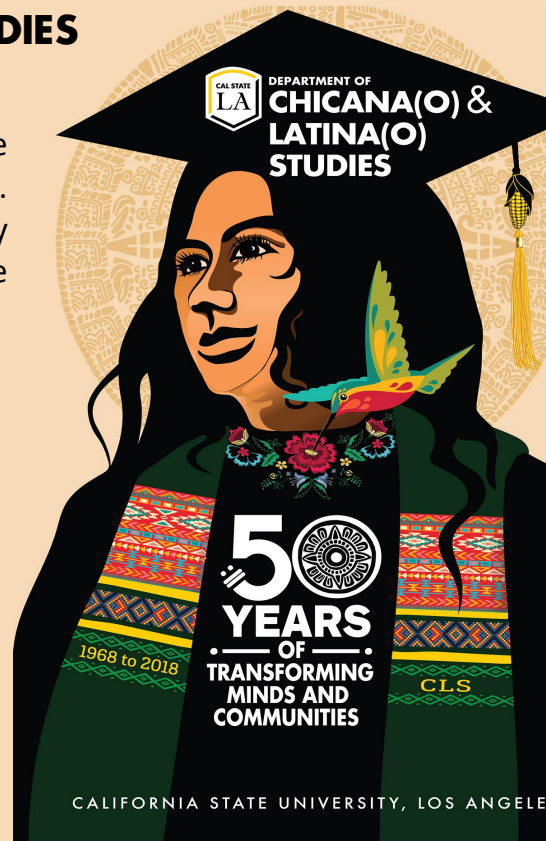

ZOOM MEETING ID: 878 2588 1850

IN PERSON OPEN HOUSE

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 3 - 4 PM

LOCATION: KING HALL C4065

JOIN US FOR PIZZA IN THE HISTORY CONFERENCE ROOM

QUESTIONS? VISIT OUR DEPARTMENT WEBSITE

HTTPS://WWW.CALSTATELA.EDU/ACADEMIC/CLS

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 15, 2023

APPLY HERE: HTTPS://WWW.CALSTATE.EDU/APPLY

REGISTER HERE

HTTPS://BIT.LY/CLSMaOpenHouse

