

Emeritus:

The honorary adjective granted to a retired professor by the University President based on the recommendations of the department/school, and college upon honorably retiring from their assigned duties.

The Purpose of the Association

Established on February 9, 1978, the Purpose of the California State University, Los Angeles Emeriti Association is to:

1. Secure, enhance, and maintain the status, rights, and privileges of the emeriti faculty of California State University, Los Angeles.
2. Encourage members to carry on scholarly endeavors contributing to the educational community of the University.
3. Serve the educational community at the University, college, school and department/division levels.
4. Contribute to the University's mission by such means as may be determined by The Association.
5. Provide for the general welfare of the members of the Association.

Membership:

Regular membership is open to all faculty who are granted emeritus status by California State University, Los Angeles.

Why Become a Member?

- To stay connected with the academic and intellectual community where you spent your professional career.
- To stay connected, as much or as little as you choose, with friends, colleagues' staff and students from the University.
- To keep abreast, through the Emeritimes, of colleagues' professional activities, their travels and adventures, and major developments and personnel changes at the University.
- To meet with colleagues and friends at the regularly scheduled luncheons, and at the periodic forums on current events and topics of special interest to the emeriti and university community.
- To support students from your department, school and college at the annual luncheon recognizing scholarship/fellowship recipients.
- To have a voice in University governance through the Emeriti Association's representatives on the Academic Senate

Major Activities of the Association

The Emeritimes

A quarterly publication of the Association with articles and information of interest to emeriti faculty and the University community.

Scholarships and Fellowships

Awards are made from the Emeriti Endowment Fund supported by donations/fundraising, and from endowments established by individuals. The Association awards more scholarships/fellowships than all other Emeriti Associations in the CSU.

Luncheons

At least two luncheons a year provide an opportunity for Association members and others from the University community to socialize and stay connected.

Life Long Learning

Emeriti and current CSULA faculty make presentations to seniors in metropolitan Los Angeles for enrichment and intellectual stimulation.

Special Events

Forums to address timely issues/topics of special interest to the Emeriti and University communities are scheduled based on interest, importance, or timeliness.

Membership

All retired members of the faculty of California State University, Los Angeles who have been awarded emeritus status are invited to join the Emeriti Association. Life membership is a one-time payment of $250.00. Regular annual membership is $30.00.

Organization and Governance

The Executive Committee of the Association, which consists of the officers, committee chairs, and six at-large members, is the governing body of the Association. In addition, the Executive Committee selects 2 members to serve as representatives on the University Academic Senate and 3 members to serve on the State Council of the CSU Emeritus and Retired Faculty and Staff Association, a non-profit corporation devoted exclusively to addressing the concerns and protecting the rights of all retired CSU faculty and staff.

Get Involved: There are opportunities to get involved, as an officer, an at large member, a committee chair or as a member of one of the standing committees. Two committees which frequently need additional members and/or help with their activities are the Emeriti Fellowship Awards Committee, and the Programs and Publicity Committee.

To Learn More: If you are interested in learning more about the Executive Committee, are interested in serving on a committee or just want to know more about how to get involved, send your name and contact information with a brief note about your interest to: emeriti@calstatela.edu
