* You will register for edTPA through Pearson at http://www.edtpa.com/ during Student Teaching.

* There is a $300 fee for edTPA and it covers all development costs and operational assessment services associated with the resources and support for implementation, delivery, scoring and reporting of edTPA, as well as customer support service for candidates.

* Scorers are trained specifically to edTPA rubrics, they use standardized scoring procedures and are calibrated and monitored during scoring.

CCOE offers two kinds of workshop classes:

One in the semester prior to student-teaching, to familiarize yourself with the TPA process.
The second during student-teaching, as you actually pay for and submit the TPA.
Each class meets five times during the semester, on a Friday.

We provide the required texts in the class

* edTPA Single Subject Handbook
* edTPA Elementary Literacy Handbook for Literacy and Math
* edTPA-Making Good Choices

Apply NOW to the post-baccalaureate Certificate in Storytelling for Teachers and Classrooms

The Certificate Program in Storytelling explores the techniques, theories, and literature associated with the ancient and modern art of storytelling.

The skills learned support language arts instruction and communications skills for teachers, librarians, and recreation leaders.

Program is open to matriculated, upper division undergraduate and postbaccalaureate students.

"This program really taught me that Storytelling is so much more than reading and telling stories. I learned about myself as a teacher, while gaining valuable visual and performing arts techniques to use in my classroom."
