Salary Range: $88,660/ year

Work Schedule: Full-time, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm; exempt position. This is a non-teaching position. This position is eligible for benefits. This is a temporary appointment expiring on or before June 30, 2022 with the possibility of renewal, contingent on the availability of funds.

Position Overview:

California Social Work Education Center: CalSWEC is a partnership between social work education and the publicly supported child welfare structure. Funded through federal Title IV-E grants, CalSWEC provides financial support to MSW students in exchange for a commitment to work in a public child welfare agency, within the State of California, for a minimum of one year for every year of support received.

Essential Functions: Child Welfare Instructor reports to the California Social Work Education Center (CalSWEC) Project Coordinator. Coordinate outreach to CSULA CalSWEC graduates; develop social media to keep in communication with alumni. Plan and coordinate research/socialization events. Plan and conduct training for graduates and current students. Research predictors of student success in CalSWEC program. Research virtual learning technologies that would benefit CalSWEC students and graduates. Develop other research topics that are relevant to the CalSWEC program. Submit two articles for publication in Social Work journals. Present topics for specialized seminars.

Develop new CalSWEC internship sites; participate in the selection of applicants for the MSW program. Work with CalSWEC Project Coordinator to interview and select students for the CalSWEC program; place students in field internships; work with students needing placements. Participate in School meetings and activities; participate in field education meetings and orientations. Participate in and contribute to relevant community and interagency activities.

Requirements:

Minimum Qualifications: Master's degree in Social Work from an accredited social work program; at least three years of post-MSW social work practice experience working with children and families; two years combined experience as a supervisor, an agency field instructor or a university instructor; experience with diverse populations and cross-cultural practice.

Preferred Qualifications: Experience in program development and supervision; evidence of professional activities including presenting at conferences or coordinating workshops; experience at working collaboratively with community agencies. Five years of post-MSW social work practice experience working with children and families in a public child welfare agency.

The incumbent must demonstrate an interest or ability in working in a multicultural/multiethnic environment. A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the UAS. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current UAS employees who apply for the position. A completed UAS employment application is required along with letter of application; curriculum vitae; three letters of recommendation; and transcript from institution awarding highest degree.

Review of applications will begin July 06, 2020 and will continue until the position is filled; however, the recruitment may close when an adequate number of qualified applications are received.
